Echoes of a year...

of tradition

of challenge

of achievement

Tradition . . . echoes in silence after the Leopard song . . . rings in the A Cappella's "Twelve Days of Christmas" . . . incites each scholar to do his best . . . materializes in red and white at the games . . . resounds during "Old Man River." Tradition is a symbol of achievement and a pathway for challenge.

Challenge . . . echoes after a starting whistle . . . rings in "Who's going to win the game?" . . . incites a Model U.N. debate . . . materializes in the desire to make each year better . . . resounds in cheers for a winning touchdown. Challenge is a continuation of tradition and a basis for further achievement.

Achievement . . . echoes of lasting knowledge . . . rings in the Victory Song . . . incites pride at the awards banquet . . . materializes on report card day and in State trophies . . . resounds in the announcement of a name at graduation. Achievement poses endless challenge and sets new tradition.

Dear Jim,
I really have you don't get me wrong. Please come by it. Come over to my house again
and call prove it to you. Sherry Love you always

I hope you have a good time

Dedication

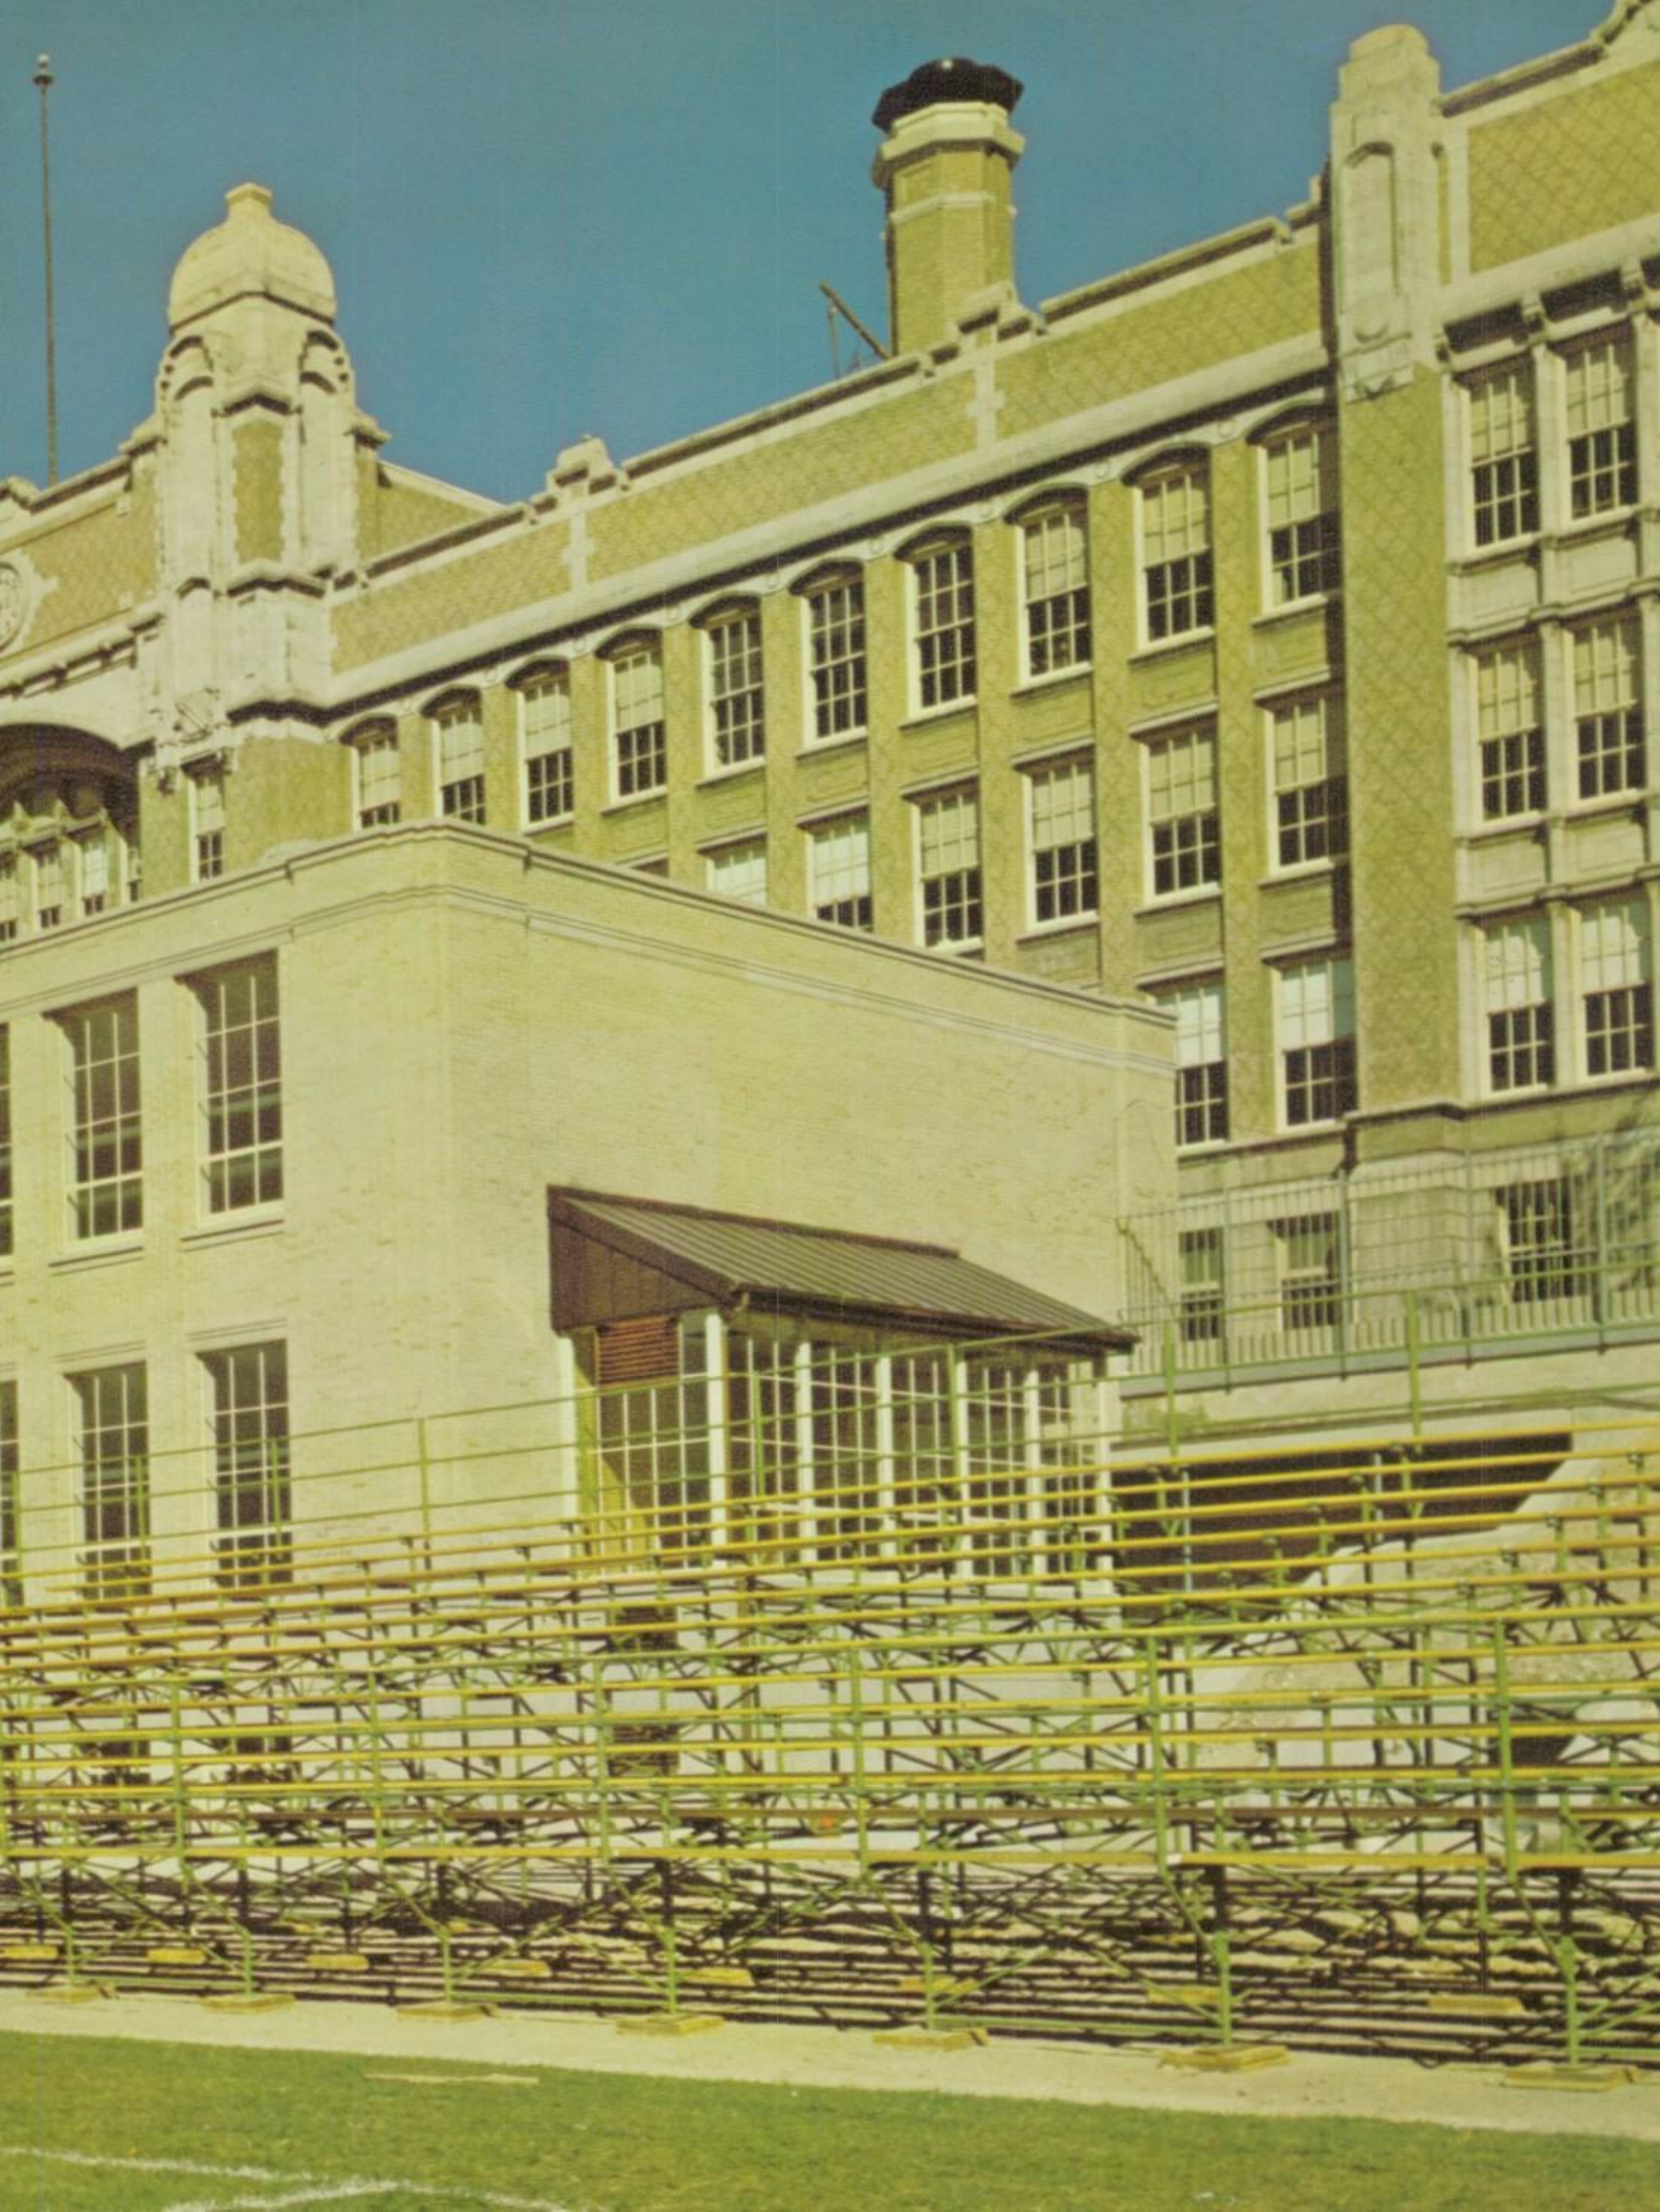
The Eastonia of 1965 is dedicated to the students — Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.

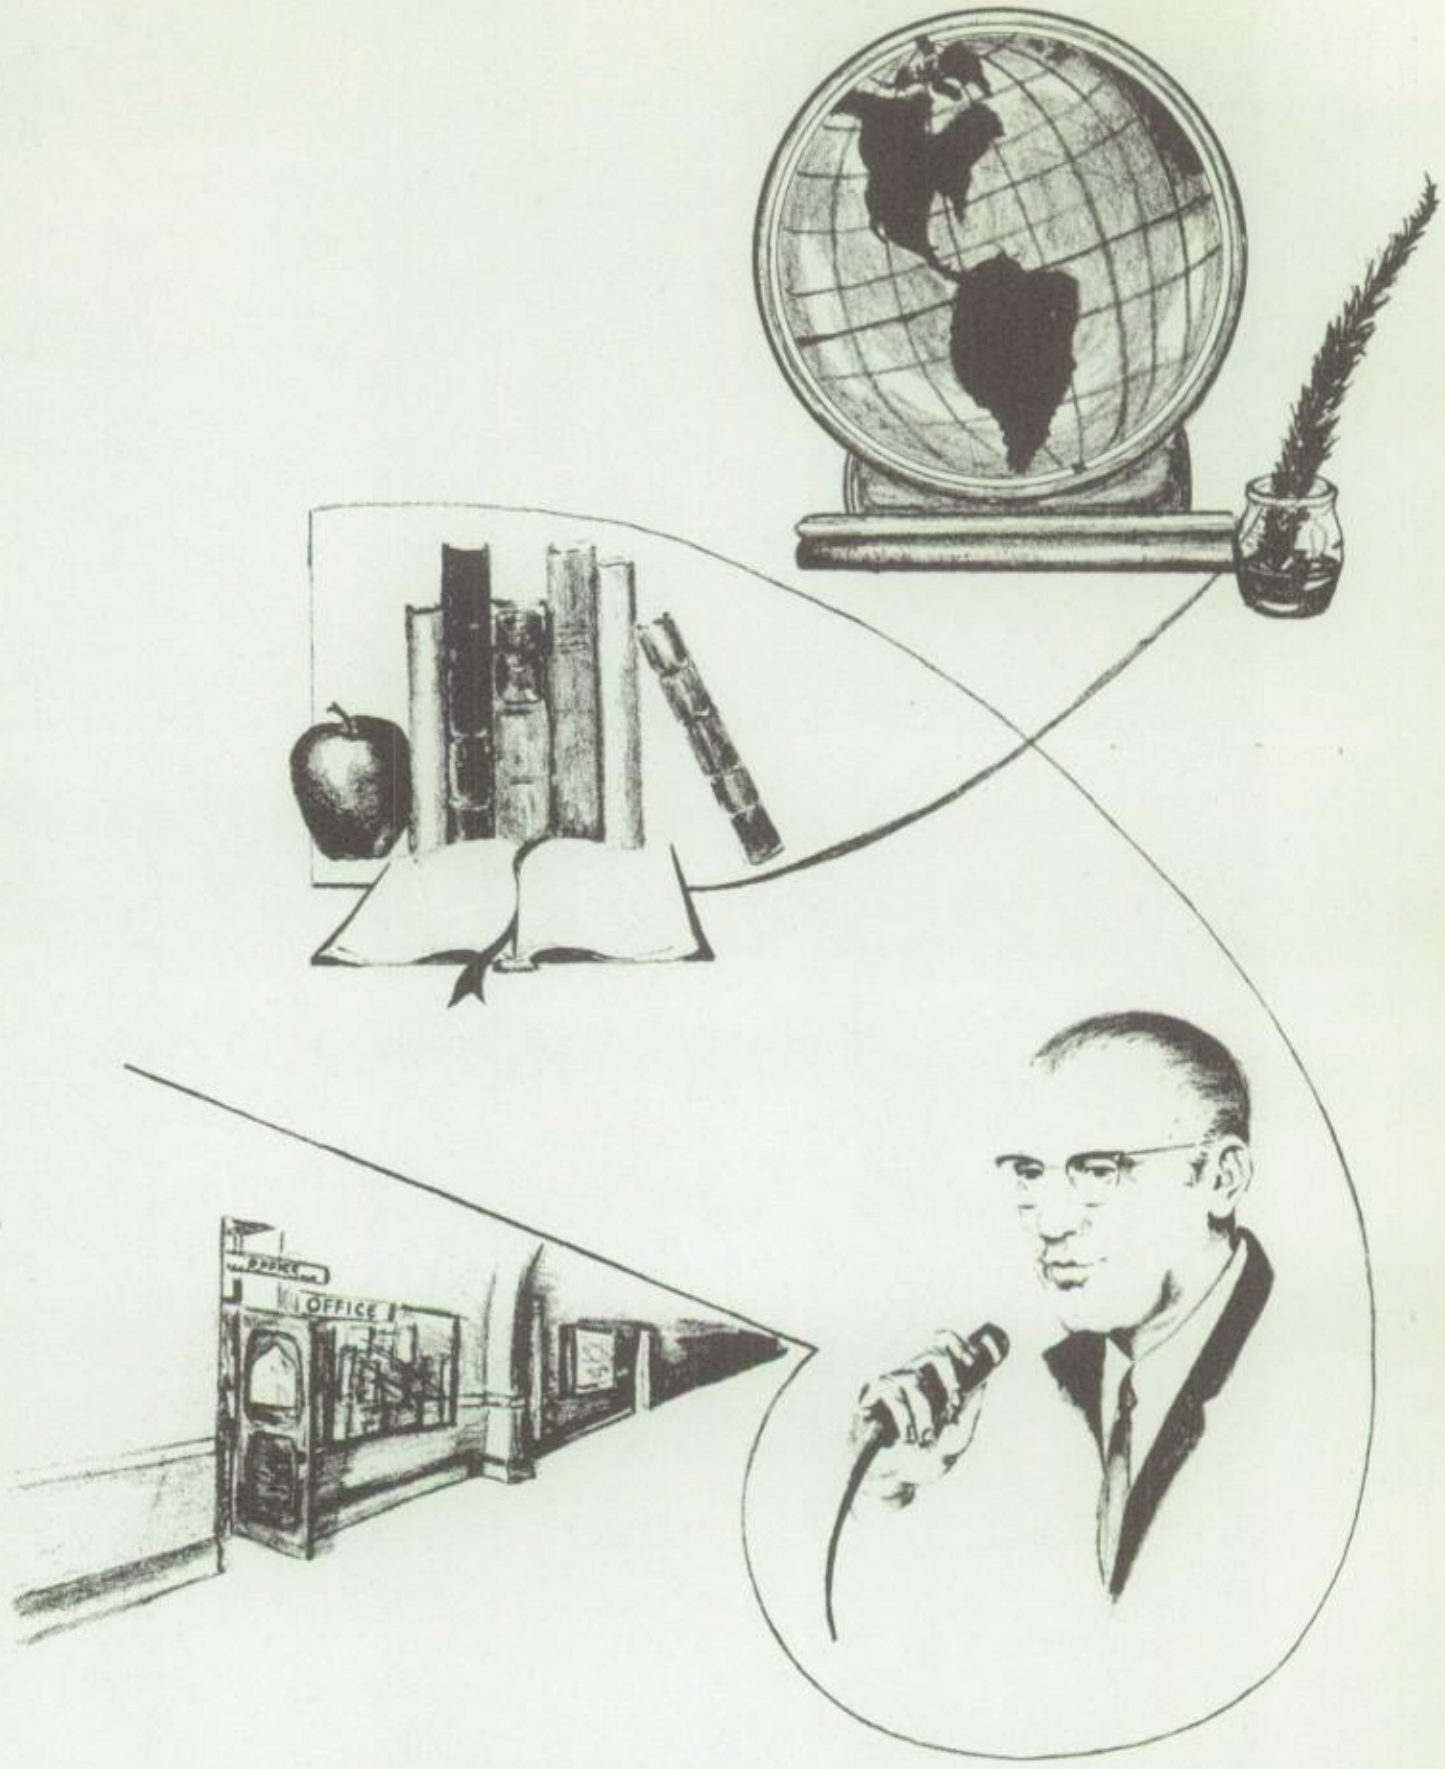
Sophomores . . . sing the "Loyalty Song" on Hello Day . . . sit in the balcony . . . wear red and white every game day . . . learn that things accomplished at East must be the best . . . supply the uniting force that generates and strengthens greatness. Sophomore goals are patterned through echoes of tradition.

Juniors . . . slave through National Merit tests . . . supply seventy spirited Pep Clubbers for the Big Red . . . activate patterned goals . . . accept the responsibility of the President's message to break old records. Junior actions are inspired by echoes of challenge.

Seniors . . . wear the Senior class pin . . . participate in Girls and Boys State . . . represent the entire student-body in its accomplishments . . . secure lasting friendships . . . culminate three years of goals and action for individual fulfillment. Senior diplomas symbolize echoes of achievement.

ACADEMICS





FROM ADMINISTRATION AND MYSELF

I WOULD LIKE TO THANK YOU FOR THE WONDERFULL AND INSPIRED YEAR. I HOPE TO SEE YOU NEXT YEAR. HAVE FUN THIS SUMMER.

BRENT WUDUNIC

Principal

To the students of East, morning announcements on the P.A., comments on the gridiron, and red socks on game day symbolize Mr. Richards. But more than these, his ability to coordinate the activities of a school year and set high standards of achievement characterize a Principal dedicated to accomplishment and the students.

Dear Ecider:

To develop rational powers and social adaptability is the primary objective of East High. Teachers have encouraged you, and if you have made the most of your opportunities, you are prepared to meet life's challenges. It is my wish that you will realize all that you aspire to achieve.

Elva Cotterell

As Vice Principal of curriculum and instruction, Miss Cotterell coordinates matters concerning classroom supervision, teacher-improvement services, and curricular activities — commencement, school plays, publications. Her success and achievement are due largely to ability, interest in, and love of her work.

Vice Principals

LaMar W. Sorensen

East's administration has been firmly established by the appointment of Mr. Sorensen this year. He supervises the Board of Control, Boosters, dances, games, and has contributed not only the spell of his "lucky red vest," but also a genuine concern and warmth for the students and their extracurricular activities.

Board of Education

M. Lynn Bennion
Superintendent of Schools

The Board of Education has affected each student personally by means of the new building. The completed plans provide modern chemistry and physiology labs, improved foods and clothing facilities, new art rooms, and much needed locker space.

A.F.S.

My life here in Copenhagen, Denmark, is much like it was in the United States, only with Danish accents — the language, pastries, and girls — resulting in a struggle, a gain of weight, and hunger, respectively. When school began, I met what I consider the poorer accents — not the idea of riding a bike two miles in a snow storm to school, but going six days a week and taking nine solids. Sports are much like those in America, except skiing is slightly accented with no mountains and little snow. In my stay, I have proved to myself that people are the same everywhere. I have also glanced back upon East with nostalgia, and I am anxious to return home.

John Billings
United States School Program, 1964-65

While living with two Dutch families in Rotterdam and The Hague, Netherlands, this summer, I discovered that regardless of language and heritage, human nature is universal. The Dutch are an intelligent, industrious and friendly people; the short time I lived with them has been the most exciting experience of my life.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Jim Brinton, President

With positive direction, friendly warmth, and desire for the best, Jim has gained respect for himself and his school. He has provided the mature leadership required to keep East on her path of tradition, challenge, and achievement.

S.A.E. Officers

Bernie Asahina, Vice President

A quick wink, a flashing smile, and a willingness to try anything once, are characteristic of Bernie's enthusiasm to fulfill his office and to make the year a little more fun for every student.

Janet Strong, Secretary

A folksinger, a dramatist, and a dancer — Janet is a girl of varied talents and interests which have made her an active member of the Board of Control and a fun-loving officer.

Karen Ericksen, Historian

Using her own special vivacity and friendliness in both her many activities and in her position as a student body officer, Karen has made this a better year for all who have known her.

Pat Roylance, Business Manager

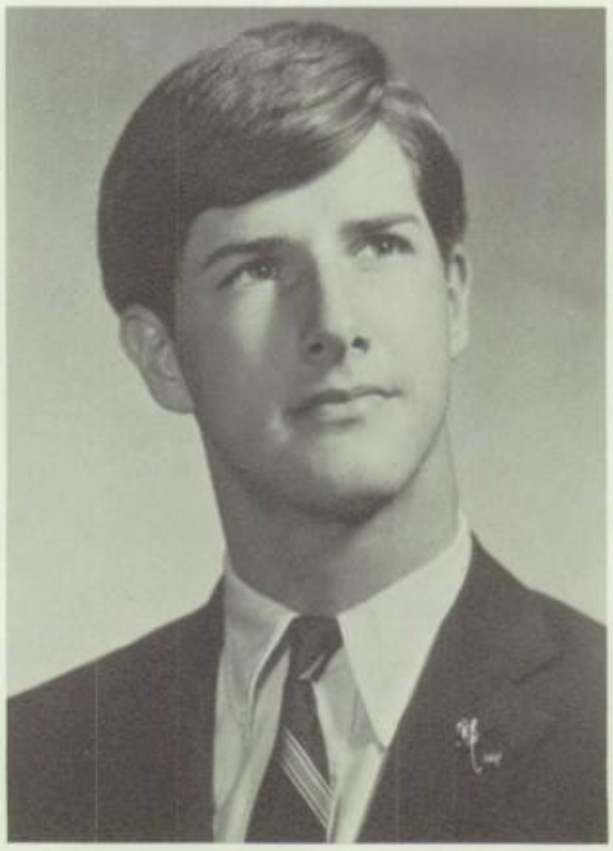
Subtle humor, sound logic, and an underlying sincerity are among the attributes Pat has employed as Business Manager in serving his school and his student body this year.



Board of Control

Whether boosting spirit with a colossal skit, stunning the fashion world with red sweaters, making plans far into the night for an activity, or putting other things aside to serve their student body, the Board of Control has led East through a year of achievement.

CLASSES

Senior Class Officers

Steve Keller, President

Sincerity and a desire to do his best, as portrayed by his establishment of a new tradition at East—the senior parking lot—have made Steve a dedicated class president.

Steve Spencer, Vice President

Genuine friendliness and a habit of being class vice president have labeled Steve an important part of the seniors' year as an experienced and able officer.

Karren Kelly, Secretary

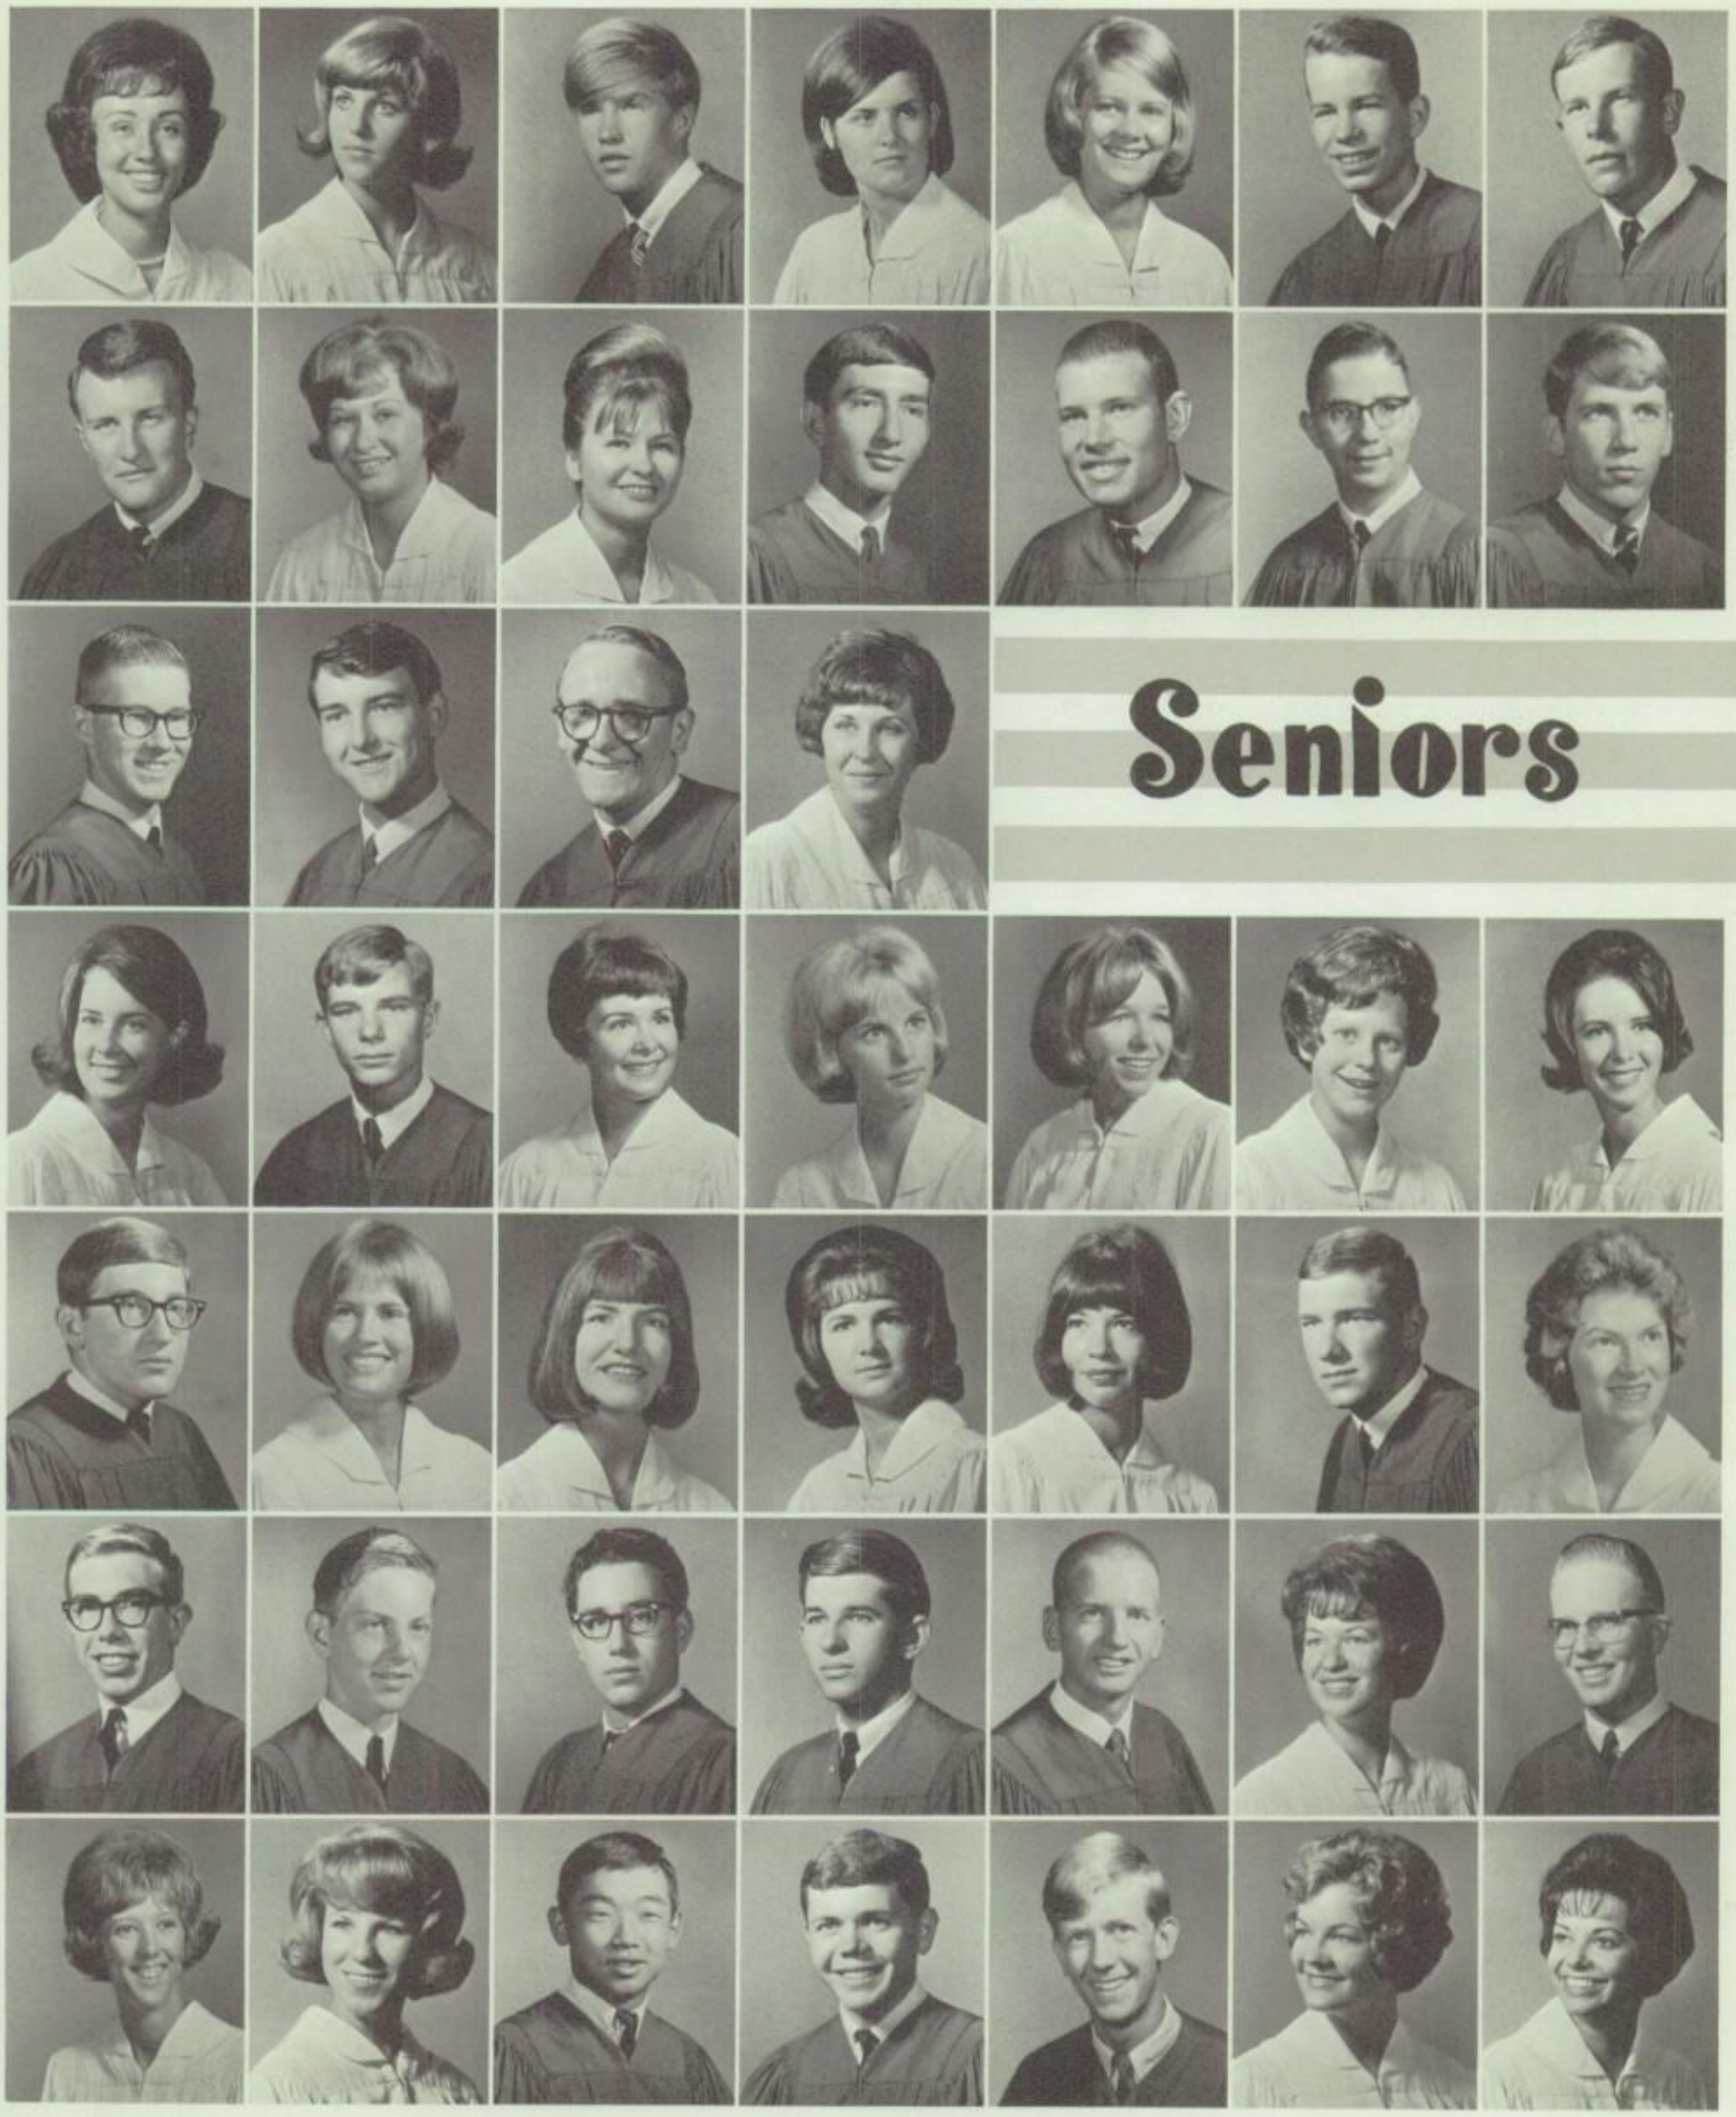
Enthusiasm, unaffected warmth, and bounding school spirit characterize Karren as the "clashiest" student at East and have made her a favorite among the seniors.



Seniors

Oh, I'd give her about a 7.9.

Sandbox 7, 8 is lots of fun!

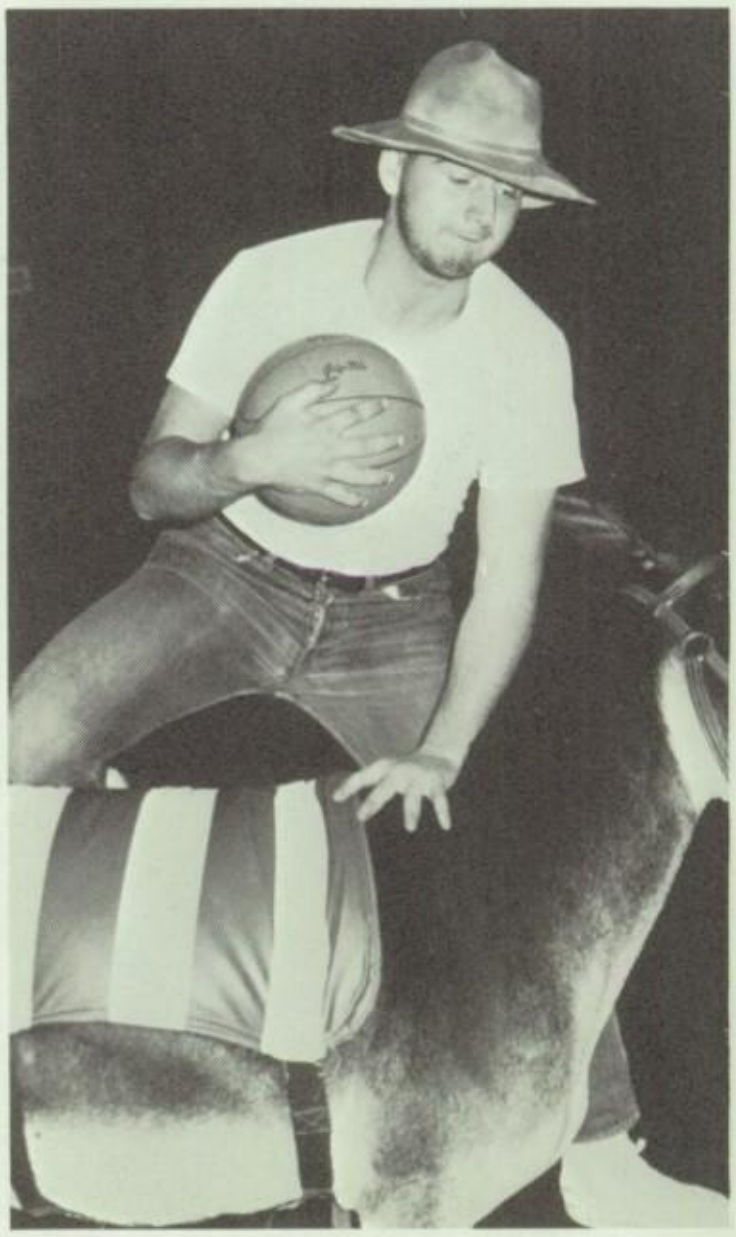
Don't you wish we were still in Pep Club?

East's own Allen Funt caught in the act.

I got 38 shaves with my Personna.

Who took State?

East took State in snowball rolling.



Tight levis are not the answer.

Junior Prom Queen Grezelda Nurch beams radiantly after her coronation.

Juniors

Junior playmates of the year.

What are these underclassmen coming to?

Oh, won't you ever grow up Little Toot?

Junior Class Officers

Paul Hess, President
Dependability, industry, and humor are qualities that have enabled Paul not only to talk to trees, but also to lead the juniors to both new heights and big times.

Ralph Dewsnup, Vice President
Sincerity and leadership are among the talents that folk-singing Ralph has shown as the vice president of the middle class.

Liz Lloyd, Secretary
A quick smile, a warm hello, and her own special charm have tied up Liz into a small package of vitality — adding in a big way to the junior year.

Sophomore Class Officers

Colin Thomas, President

Fast wit, contagious smile, and willingness to work symbolize Colin — an able leader who has made a dent in the "Upper Crust" by his efforts to equalize the Sophomores.

Craig Brewster, Vice President

Sincerity, genuine personality, and effective leadership — all qualities Craig has used to make the most funloving class an important part of East's unity.

Kris Cannon, Secretary

Enthusiasm, devotion, and matchless energy spell out Kris — a spirited girl who has added excitement to all the Sophomore activies.

Madrigals

One of the best examples of achievement at East is the Madrigals, who represent the student body at the U.E.A. convention, churches, hospitals, and civic groups. The madrigals, led by Miss Bowman, are not just a tradition, but a tradition of excellence.

Quartettes

The Boys' and Girls' Quartettes, with the girls in their "barber shop attire," present their melodious harmonies not only for churches, luncheons, and service organizations, but also for the students during assemblies.

String Quartette

Every morning before school, the String Quartette meets for its practices. The group, organized by string members within the orchestra, plays classical music for various civic organizations and school activities.

String Sextette

Music ranging from the light classical to the modern popular is played by the String Sextette, delighting civic, school, and church groups throughout the city. Members of the Sextette are selected by auditions.

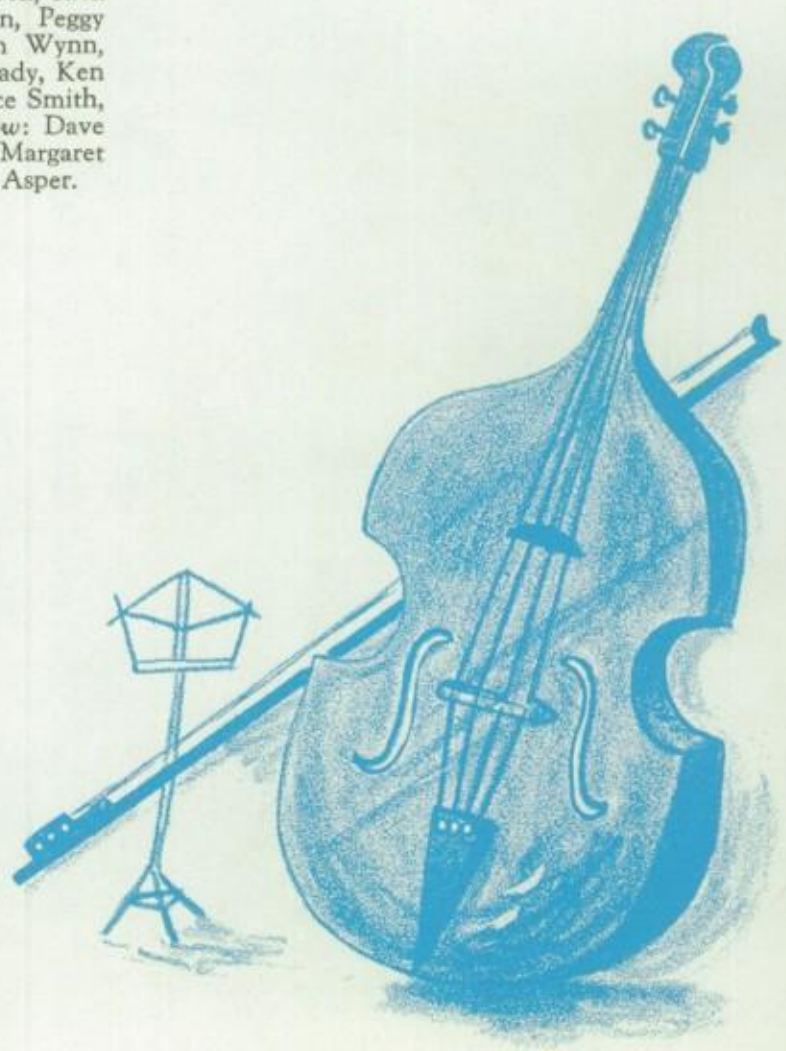
Orchestra

Excitement mounts as the orchestra tunes up. When the music rises, whether it be at the school play, the Christmas program, or the dance program, the audience is assured of an excellent presentation. Years of practice and Mr. Young's leadership are the essence of East High's orchestra.



Wind Ensemble

Mr. Dow Young
Sponsor

The wind ensemble, consisting of eighty wind and percussion players, has performed on assemblies at East and at junior high schools, has competed at the Region Three competition, and has participated with exchanges from other schools.

"Resolved that nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization," is the question considered by members of the Debate Club in preparation for three major meets — the Weber Invitational, the Region, and the State.

A far-away place with different people was the subject for the meeting when A.F.S. student Jim Wheelwright and Renee Feenstra, a visiting student from Holland, related their experiences to the International Club. The Model U.N., the presentation of Dean Thurman on an assembly, and the UNICEF drive on Halloween are ways these club members have acted to further their purpose: improving international understanding.

Take a typical German Club party or "Weihnact Fest," and you may see plenty of lederhosen and hear "Ja!" and "Nein!" but you won't hear a "Yes" or "No," because the German Club members believe in being thorough — whether speaking only German at a party, building a booth for the carnival, or sponsoring lectures and films to enrich their study.

Russian Club

From the picnic in October, to the chorus which sings at club parties and at the Language Festival, to the movies shown to the language classes, to the float in the Homecoming Parade, Russian Club activities plainly show the interest the members have in not only the Russian language, but also the Russian culture.

Spanish Club

Games, songs, and food from South America; talks by East High students from Argentina and Uruguay; and a float in the Homecoming Parade give Spanish Club members a chance to learn both the language and the customs of Spain.

Latin Club

The Latin Club creates a typical Roman government by electing senators from each Latin class, who in turn plan the Club's activities. The high point of the year for the club members is the Roman "orgy" or banquet. During this evening everyone dresses in togas, and the first year Latin students become slaves of advanced scholars.

French Club

The Leopards de France is the first club to sponsor an activity for the entire studentbody — the Mardi Gras. A Christmas party, a booth at the Carnival, speakers, and French films such as The Red Balloon and The Suitor also serve to further interest in the French language and culture — the purpose of the French Club.

Homemakers Club

If a girl is interested in styling her own dresses, baking her own dishes, or managing her own home, the Homemaking Club furnishes valuable experiences. Meetings have been enlivened by a field trip to Ostler's Candy Company, by speakers on the subject of crafts and make-up, and by preparation of a dinner for the girls' parents.

Science Club

A speaker on heart surgery, a laser demonstration, a visit to the University of Utah reactor, and a 1100-mile air trip over Utah and Arizona — all serve to stimulate an interest in the many fields of science — the purpose of the Science Club.

Ice Skating Club

Thursday night means fun and friends for those in the Ice Skating Club. It also means the weekly meeting at Hygeia where the skaters have an opportunity to improve their skills with members of clubs from other schools.

Bowling Club

Whenever the Bowling Club meets, there's sure to be plenty of action. The members compete against each other in regular league play. The winners receive a turkey or candy at Christmas and a trophy at the end of the year.

Cross Country Club

In the fall the thirty most durable boys of East meet once a week for the Cross Country Club. They run seven to ten miles each night to prepare for their two-mile races. All this practice is worthwhile — the sophomores ended the season undefeated.

Body Club

Many of the would-be "he-men" of East belong to the Body Club. To build up their muscles they take a fifty-mile hike from Provo to Salt Lake City, go skiing, and play volleyball and basketball at the Y.M.C.A. The main purpose of the club, of course, is to produce the best-looking physiques at East!

Service is the key word in the Jr. Red Cross Club. The members started something new with their nylon drive for the children at the American Fork Training School. They also bring cheer to the patients in the V.A. Hospital and rest homes by sending cards, gifts, and nut cups on holidays.

Future Teachers Club

The Future Teachers of East are a group of students who have chosen their occupations and have resolved to do something about them. They have studied current financial and educational problems of Utah schools and participated in state conventions.

Stage Crew

By seeing that the bleachers in the gym are pulled out for assemblies, pep rallies, and games, the stage crew has provided a service that is perhaps least recognized but most utilized by the students. Their ingenious use of the new lighting and sound system has improved the excellence of each production at East.

Left to Right, First Row: R. Oblad, D. Clark, J. Hansen, Mr. W. Hyer, Sponsor. Second Row: B. Bent, E. Schiess, R. Housdorf.

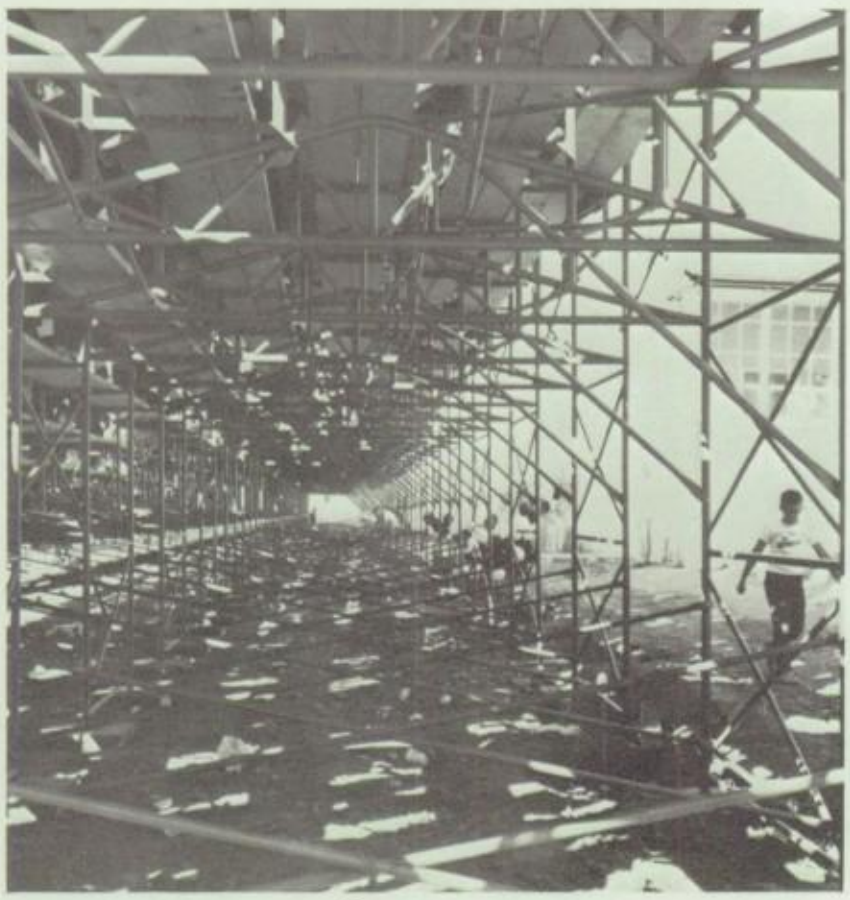
"They make the hamburger out of what?"

"Somebody get more grapes!"

"It's a bird, it's a plane, it's . . . dead."



Bottoms up.

"That's 20 pompons they've dropped so far."

"Help! The shower pipes broke!"

"A Tisket, A Tasket . . ."

Mr. Defense wraps up the assembly.

East's pre-season games seemed to be dominated by the number 39. In both the Skyline and Jordan games the Leopards mounted up 39 points to the Eagles' 6 and the Beetdiggers' O.

The first half of the East-Davis game ended scoreless after a Leopard touchdown was nullified by a penalty. However, in the second half, East scored 20 points to Davis' 7.

Early in the first quarter Gary Rodman retrieved a faulty Falcon center and galloped 30 yards to paydirt. Soon after, in the same quarter, East marched down the field for another touchdown to wrap up the Clearfield game.

Highland felt the whip-lash of East rivalry when the Big Red defeated the Rams by a score of 34-0. The Leopards' speed, recovered fumbles, and pass interceptions were the keys to the devouring of the Rams.

When the Leopards met South, both teams were undefeated. After Kent Hales fielded a free ball, ran for the touchdown, and kicked the extra point, nothing could stop the Big Red. A strong Leopard defensive held the Cubs to six points, and another touchdown gave the Hilltop eleven an undeniable victory.

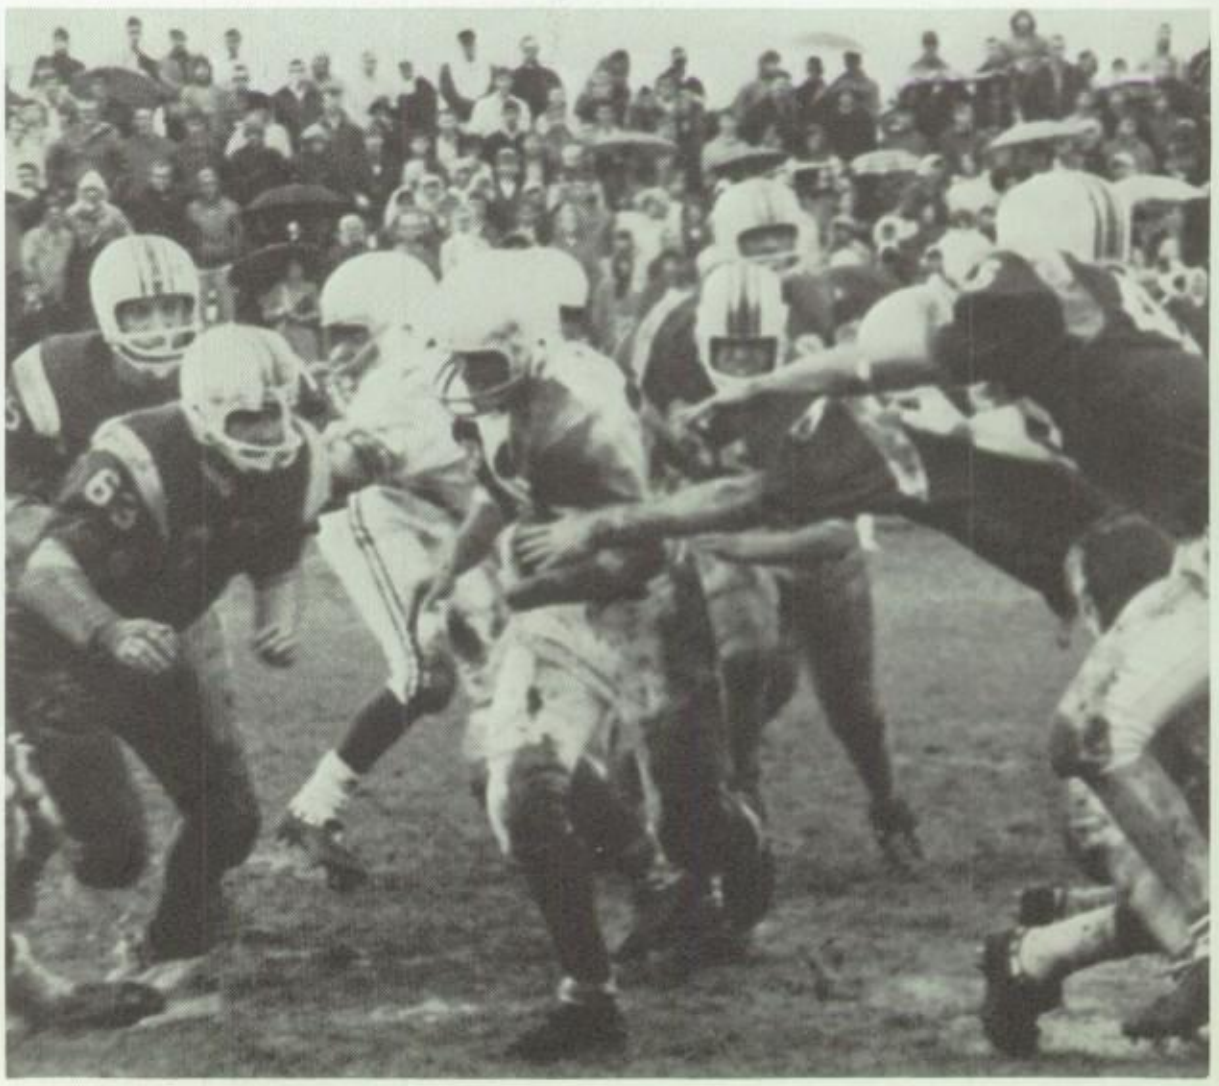
The next team to bow to the mighty Leopards was the inexperienced squad from Viewmont. The speedy Leopards ran all over the hapless Vikings to run up a final tally of 42-0.

The drenched field and gloomy skies did not daunt the spirit of the Eciders at Bountiful. East was behind until the middle of the third quarter; then a muddy fumble recovered by East and a 15-yard run to paydirt tied the game. Neither team could break the stalemate, however, and the game ended 6-6.



Homecoming was the only black mark on East's record. In the first plays the Panthers marched 85 yards through a loose but spirited Leopard defense. A flying catch by Craig Tomomatsu in the end zone gave East its final 14 points, but the Leopards couldn't catch the Panthers and went down with their only defeat.

The long season came to a climax in the University of Utah Stadium when East's Leopards defeated the Bountiful Braves to win the State crown. Tod Johnson hit Kent Hales with a pass for the first score in the State final contest. Gary Rodman also scored when he caught a punt and ran 73 yards for a touchdown.

The two region openers left East with a 1-1 record which continued to gain prestige, until the Leopards had a 10-3 record by the season's end.

Up at the Weber State gym, the Leopards tromped the Bonneville Lakers in the first State joust to give East a decisive victory. East then played Highland in the most crucial game of the tournament. The Leopards led most of the first half until the final seconds when they fell behind by one point. The second half found the Leopards a little cold, compared to their adversaries, and the game ended in a close but definite loss for East.

Now East had to beat Ogden to stay in the State tournament; they did just that in a real thriller, winning by one point. In their final State game with Skyline, although trailing the Eagles much of the game, the Leopards tied the score twice in the closing minutes. A series of foul shots then gave the game to Skyline. East ended the season with a commendable seventh place in the State tourney.

Swimming

The swimming team began working out for the State meet soon after school started. Throughout the season the rival teams of the triumverate — East, Cyprus, and Tooele — were at each other's throats. By the time of the State meet it was evident that East and Cyprus would battle for the crown. Despite an all-out effort by the Leopard tankers, who took six out of twelve gold medals, the defending State Champions were edged out of this year's crown by a mere seven points.

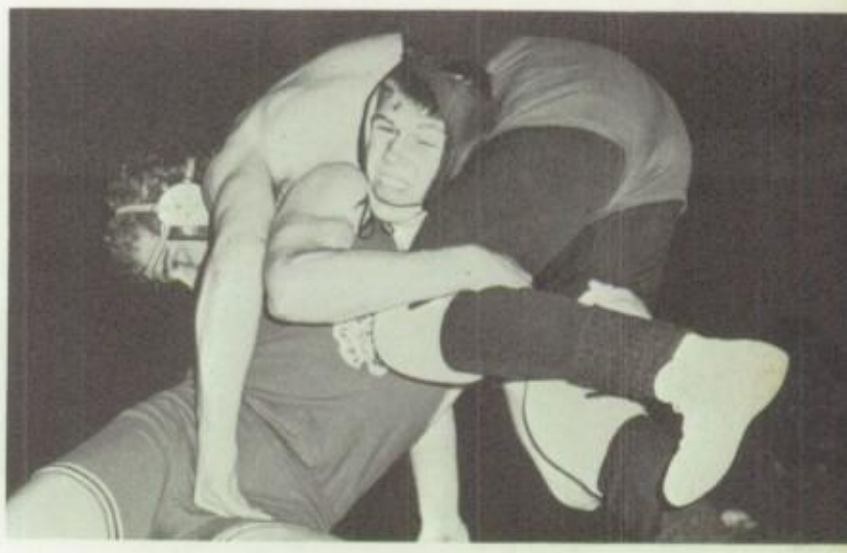
Wrestling



Wrestling, a strenuous and exhausting sport, is very popular at East, and as is tradition, the Leopards qualified grapplers for the State meet — seven this year. Two of them captured second-place titles at State; the team on the whole took eighth place. Sophomores and juniors, who comprised most of this year's team, have gained valuable experience, which makes the future look bright.

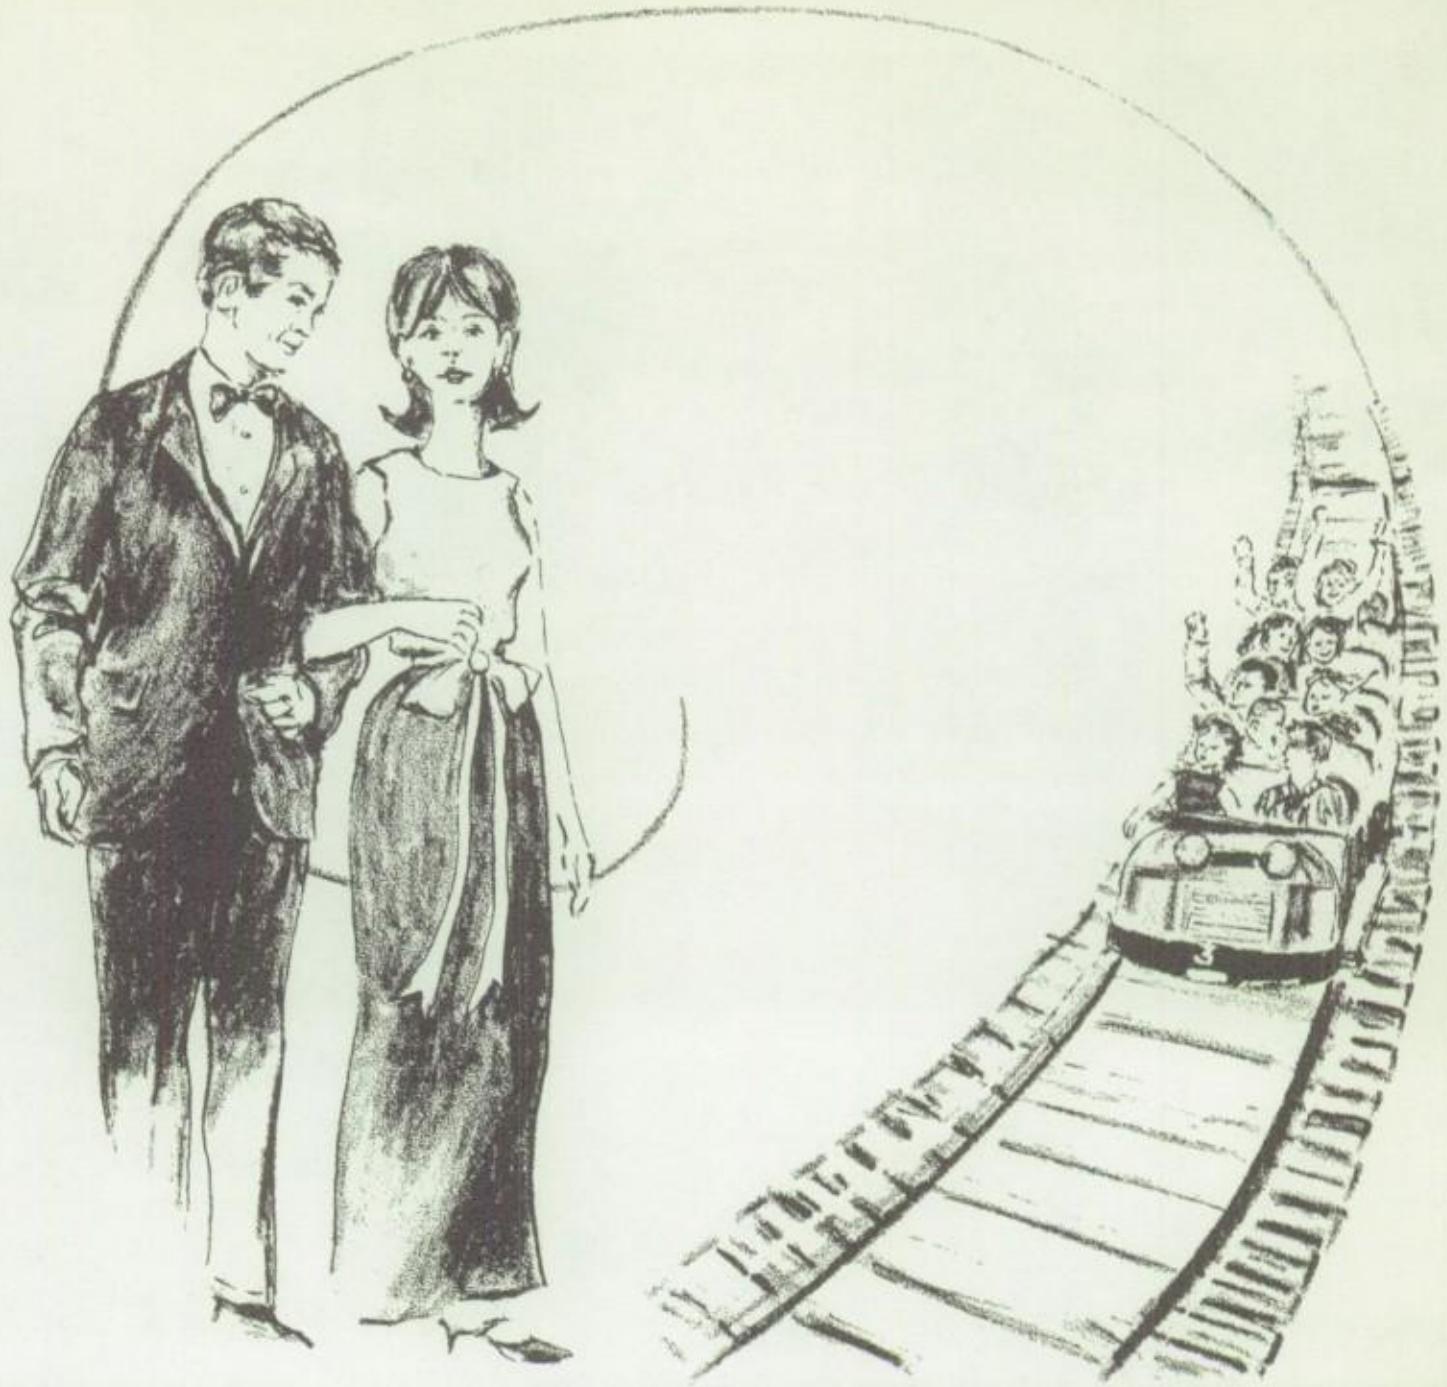
SENIOR

ACTIVITIES



ACTIVITIES

First Day

A bewildered sophomore girl was placed in R.O.T.C., boys invaded the foods classes, Hi-Club girls gave directions to other Hi-Club girls, counselors were besieged by 7-B forms, students were besieged by quarter sheets, and another year began — another challenge.

Sophomore Orientation

Mr. Richards spoke, the captains introduced the football team, the cheerleaders taught the Leopard Song, the S.A.E. officers told of their duties and led a tour through the building to show the sophomores what to expect of East and what East would expect of them.

Aloha Day

Bermuda-clad Leopards wearing colorful leis made the greeting of a new year official on "Aloha Day." The Board of Control starred in an assembly straight from the Ecide islands. The "King and Queen of East" accepted only talent who were willing to wear red and white.

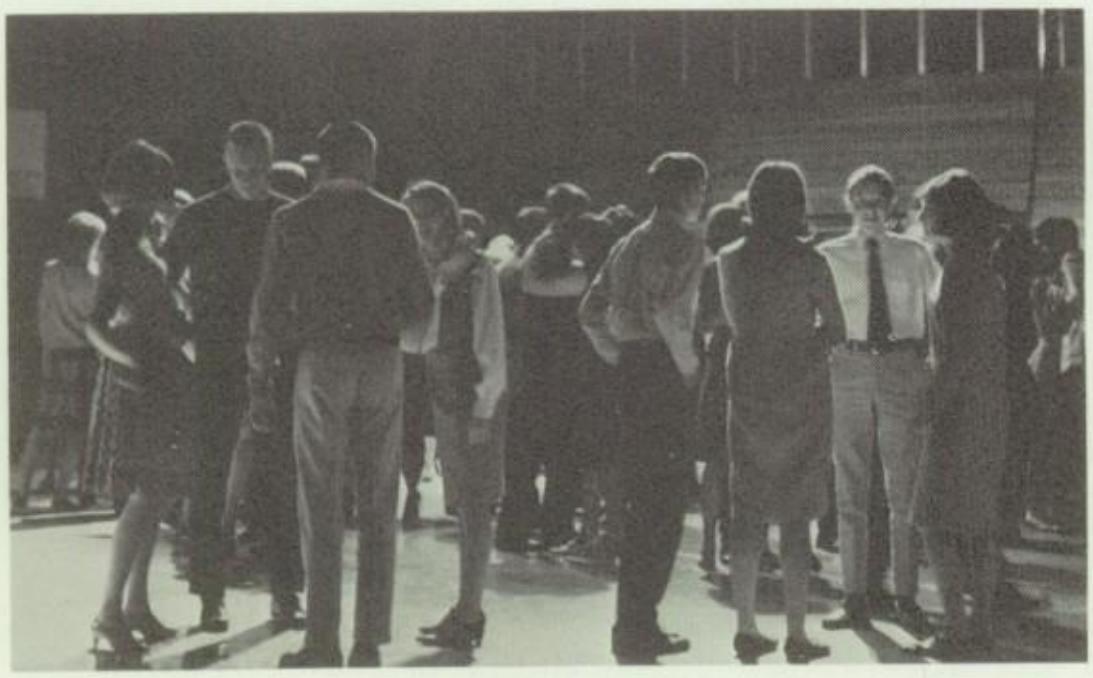
Sophomores were welcomed to East with the opportunity to sing the "Loyalty Song" any time, place, or way pleasing to their upperclassmen.

"Aloha Day" was climaxed with the Hula Hop.

E.H.A.G. Tea

At the annual E.H.A.G. Tea, the officers welcomed the girls and their mothers to another year of exciting activities. The refreshments of cake and punch, the decorations of orange, brown, and yellow autumn leaves, and the soft piano music made the occasion one to be long remembered.

Deseret News Photo



Banners and posters and tags are seen everywhere, while campaign assemblies and primary elections are the main topics for discussion during fall elections at East High. The air becomes electric as elections near, signifying the climax of one of the most important events of the year.

Fall Elections

An important addition to the usual activities at the fall dance was the announcement of the newly-elected officers.

Boys Day

The masculine gender ruled the roost on Boys' Day. Girls were seen carrying brief cases and opening doors, while boys were seen bearded and empty-handed. The theme of the A. B. of E. assembly centered around a barbershop and told the story of a girl's search for a boyfriend.

Christmas Program

The Christmas Program was a holiday gift to the students — a holiday gift wrapped in ribbons of tradition: the A Cappella's scriptural reading, the Orchestra's "Toy Train," the Dance Club's "Carol of the Drums," and everyone's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Senior Party

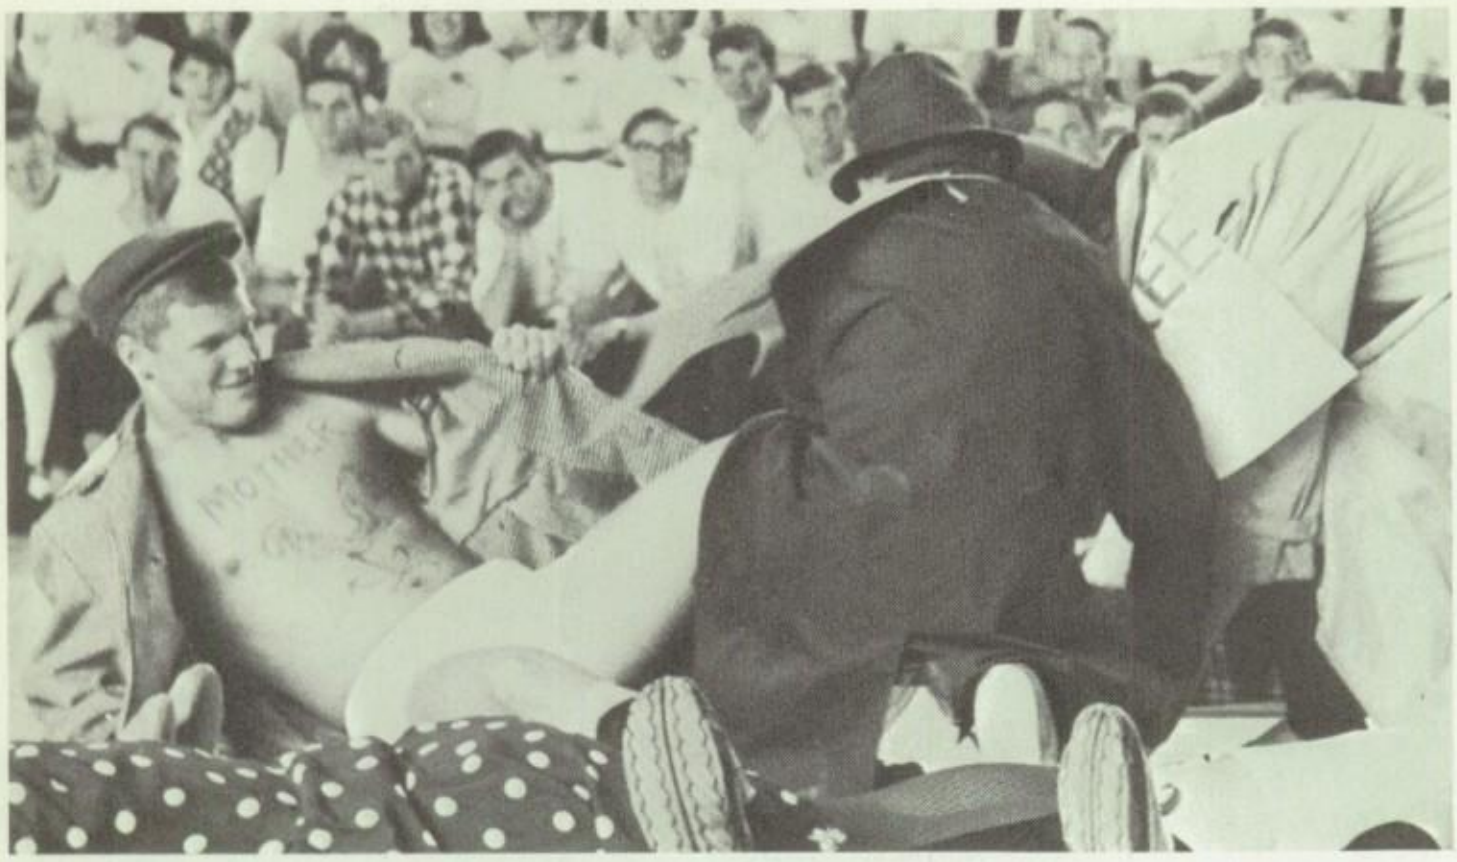
Girls dressed as flappers with knee length dresses and swirling beads, and boys in racoon coats, spats and white pants danced the Charleston. For one evening, at least, the Seniors made the "Roaring Twenties" come to life again.

Junior Party

The gym doors opened and cowboys, Indians, and even Mexican bandits surged into the Junior Class Party. The activities were just as varied as the costumes and ranged from frolicking square dances to a pie-eating contest.

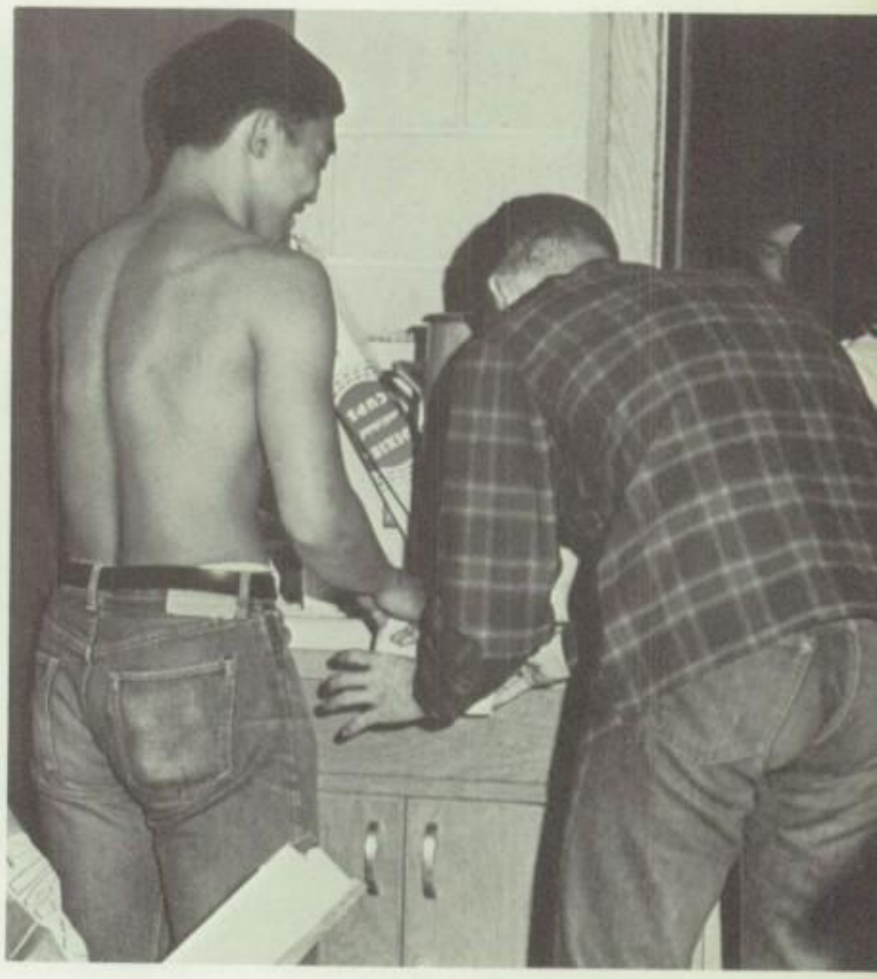
Sophomore Party

"Hard Times" hit East High the night of the Sophomore Class Party. Sophs dressed in their "grubs," played games, danced, and were entertained by talent brought by sophomore officers of other schools.



Bleachers rumbled, hands clapped, cheers and yells filled the air, and the red-and-white crowd came alive and charged its team with more Leopard spirit — another pep rally — another victory — another state trophy.

Pep Rallies

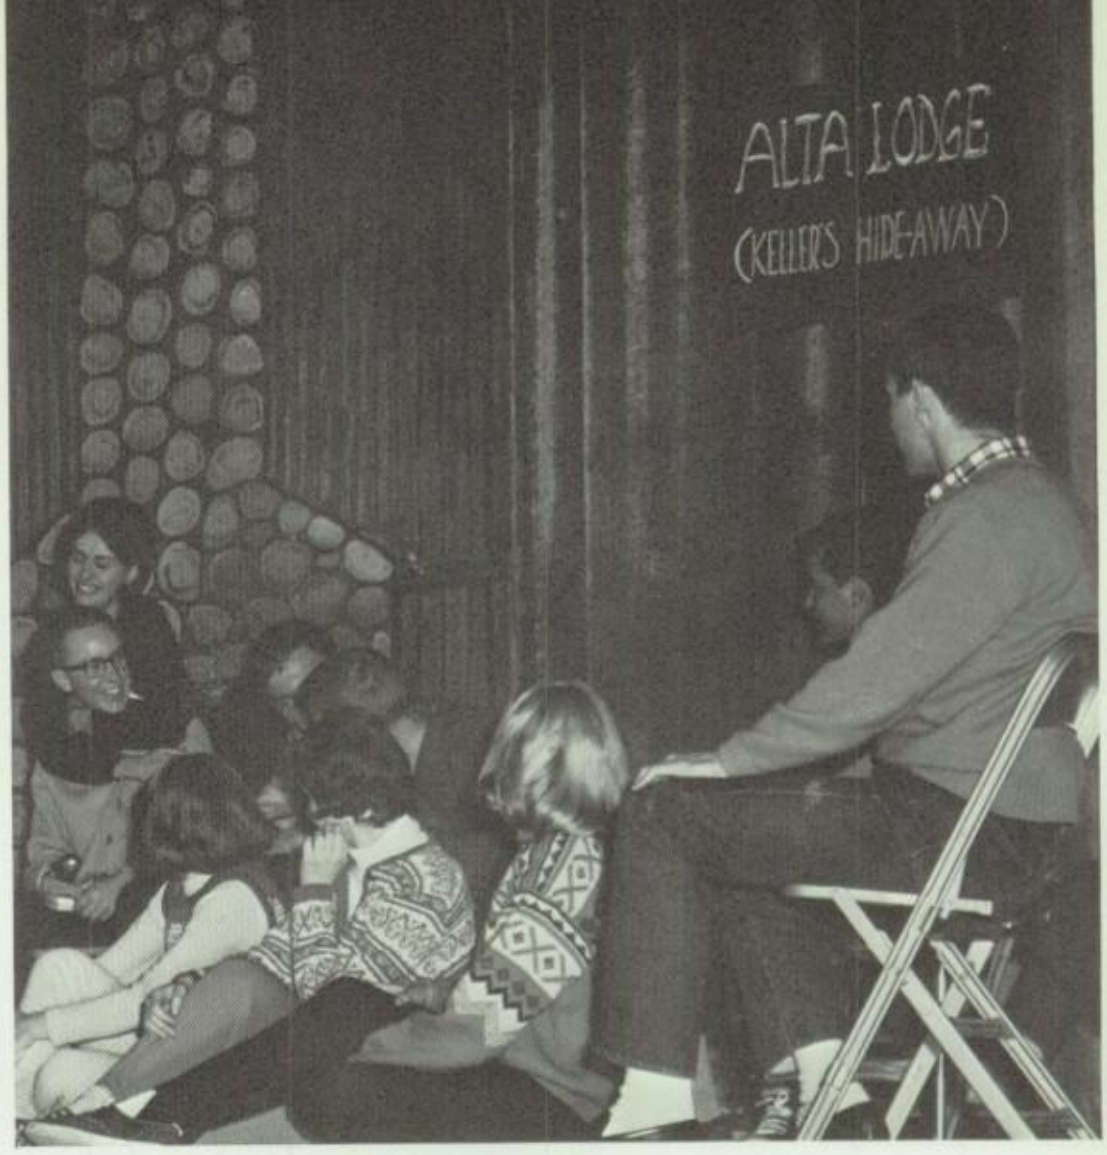


After Game Parties

At the after game parties Eciders let off steam from the tenseness of a close game and celebrated an exciting victory. The dances ranged from a Virginia Reel to a Minuet — from the Surf and Jerk to rare dances created on-the-moment, expressing the mood of the evening.

Senior Assembly

The Senior Class presented their assembly, "How to Succeed as a Senior Without Really Trying," on February 19. The Seniors portrayed the happenings in a snow-bound ski lodge. As a feud developed between the girls and boys, one thing led to another, until, luckily, the road was cleared and the snowed-in group returned home.



Junior Assembly

The Juniors presented the student body with a "Junior Fantasy," done in the dream-world style — a dream world of pink panthers, girls engulfed in plastic, and two judo experts.

Sophomore Assembly

"Rock and Roll ala Lloyd Thaxton," staged by the Sophomores, showed that the youngest class, presenting everything from blue grass folk songs to animated surf music, rated in a big way talent-wise.

M.U.N.

From the United States delegation to the African caucuses, Eciders were found debating, lobbying, and voting in the annual Model United Nations Assembly on April 2nd and 3rd — after months of committee preparation.

Orchestra Trip

Long nights on the buses, midnight parties, early morning practices, trips to Marineland and Knott's Berry Farm, wild rides on the Matterhorn at Disneyland — these events are typical of the orchestra's unforgettable trip to California. They were the only high school orchestra from Utah to play at the Western Music Educators' Convention in Long Beach.

John Goddard Assembly

Continuing one of East's favorite traditions, John Goddard brought another excellent assembly — this one featuring his films of Japan and China. His experiences gained from traveling over five thousand miles to ninety different countries have given students new ideas and a greater knowledge of their world.

A Cappella Assembly

A wide variety of songs displayed the A Cappella's superior talent at the assembly presented for the student body. From a medley of the "Music Man" to "Easter Morning" and "Go to Dark Gethsemene," the A Cappella gave an excellent performance for their favorite audience.

Dad-Daughters

On the evening of February 4, Dads became "Sugar Daddies" and daughters became "Sugar Babies." The entertainment was presented by the E.H.A.G. officers, by Becky and Mr. Young, and by JoAnne and Mr. Richards. The night ended with three dance contests — a waltz, a surf, and a charleston.

Mom-Son Night

Boys dated their favorite girls for an evening of dancing, games and refreshments at the Mom-Son Night. The two generations tried their skills in surfing and waltzing contests, tying ties, and the sons showed their mothers their high-school life.

Dad-Son Night

Dads and sons had a night out with the boys at East's Dad-Son Night. A talent program, a talk by Mr. Sorenson, and the main feature of the evening — Donkey Basketball, insured fun and a good time for all.

Operetta

On May 12 and 13 the East High drama and music departments presented Showboat. It is the story of the Cotton Blossom, a boat that traveled up and down the Mississippi from St. Louis to New Orleans entertaining the people of the river towns along the way with musical shows. The story was written by Edna Ferber, and the music by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein.

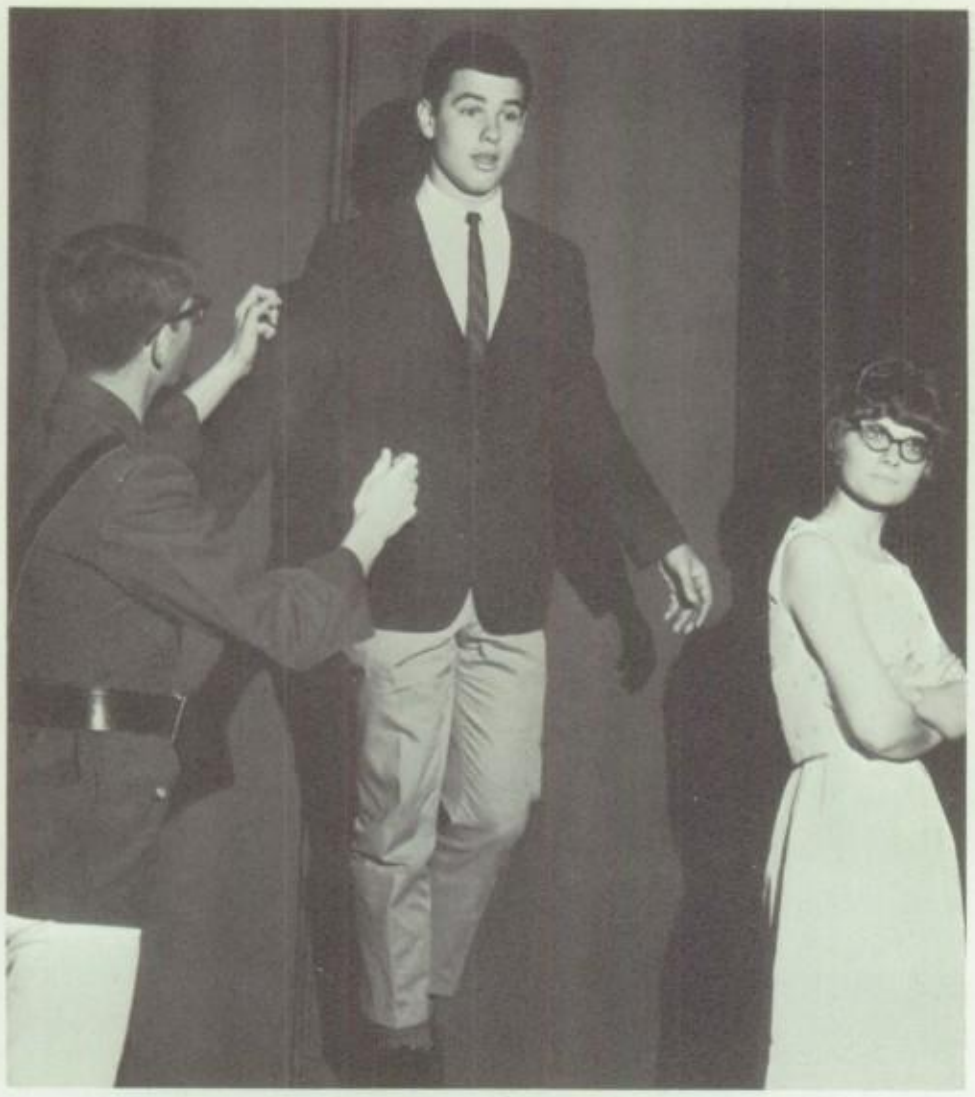
Dance Concert

The sixty members of the Dance Club presented their annual Dance Concert on February 9 and 10. The range of dances was varied, with such accompaniment as live music by the orchestra, dance bands, A Cappella, Madrigals, a folksinging group, two recordings by an IBM 70-90 computer, and children's poetry.



Take Five

Individualism, a manic-depressive, family problems, corruption and conformity were the subjects considered by the one-act plays. The plays, written by students in the creative writing classes, were presented for the student body on May 26.

Art Exhibit

The art classes' exhibit in the front hall gave future Rembrandts and Picassos a chance to display their work to admiring viewers. Works varying from still lifes to advertising posters made the annual spring exhibit both interesting and educational.

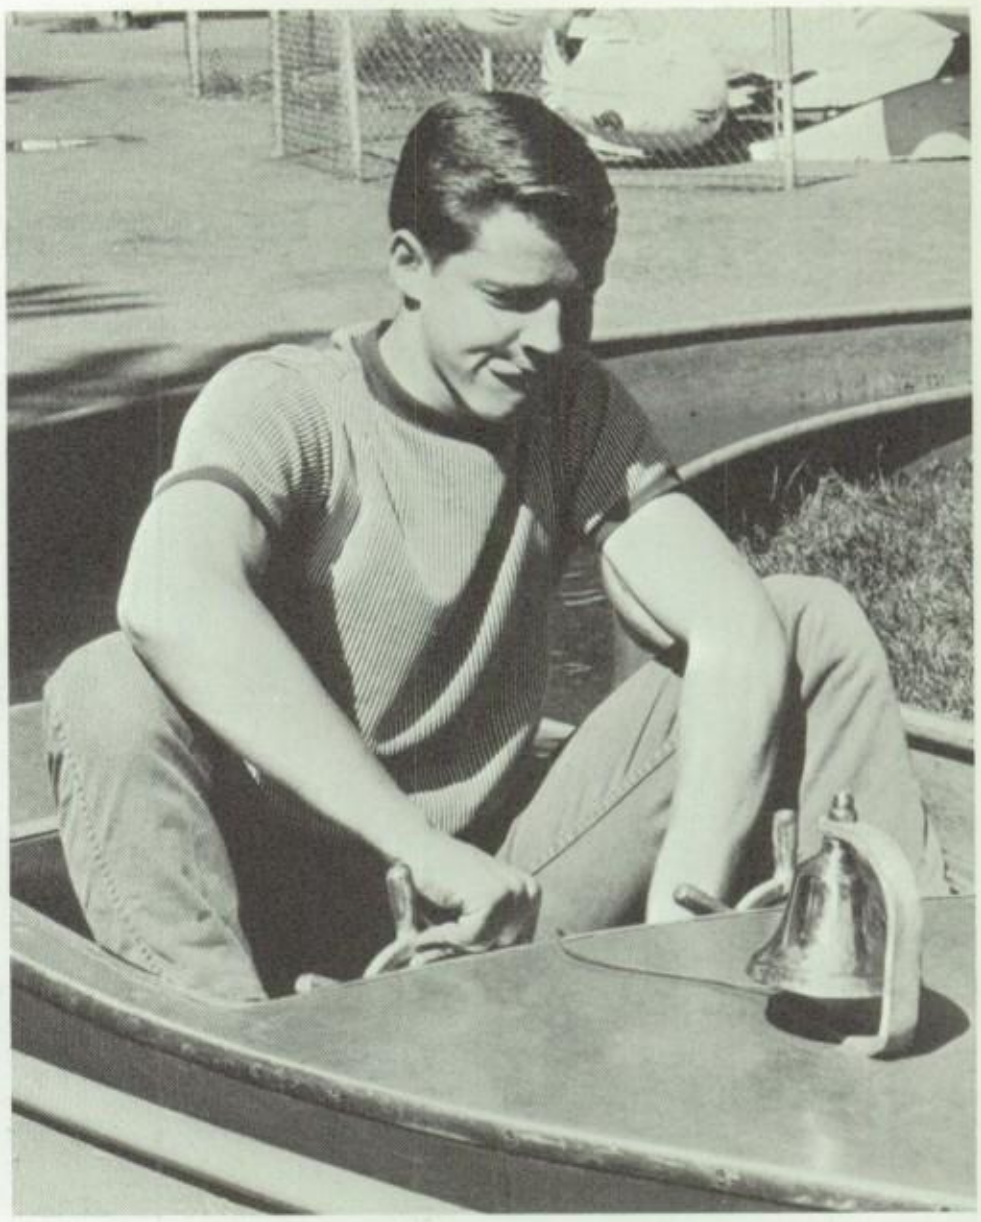
Lagoon Day

First come complicated preparations, then comes the climatic day — Lagoon Day. Dizzying rides, nut sundaes, candy cotton, bermuda shorts, miniature golf, and afternoon swimming make the day a favorite of Eciders. Long after burns have healed and tans have faded, this day will be recalled with, "Remember when . . . "



Eastonia Day

Between two red covers are tradition, challenge, and achievement . . . echoes of a year. To the students, Eastonia Day is the unveiling of the long-awaited yearbook — a day which comes to a climax at the autograph party in the gym that night. To the staff, the day brings the end of a year-long job, and feelings of pride and satisfaction when they see their ideas transformed into printed pages.

. . . a small ache

. . . a nostalgic memory of a unique world of intense friendships

of brave new philosophies and of valued experiences —

A world of many feelings excitement of knowledge awakenings to responsibility sometimes a reluctance . . .

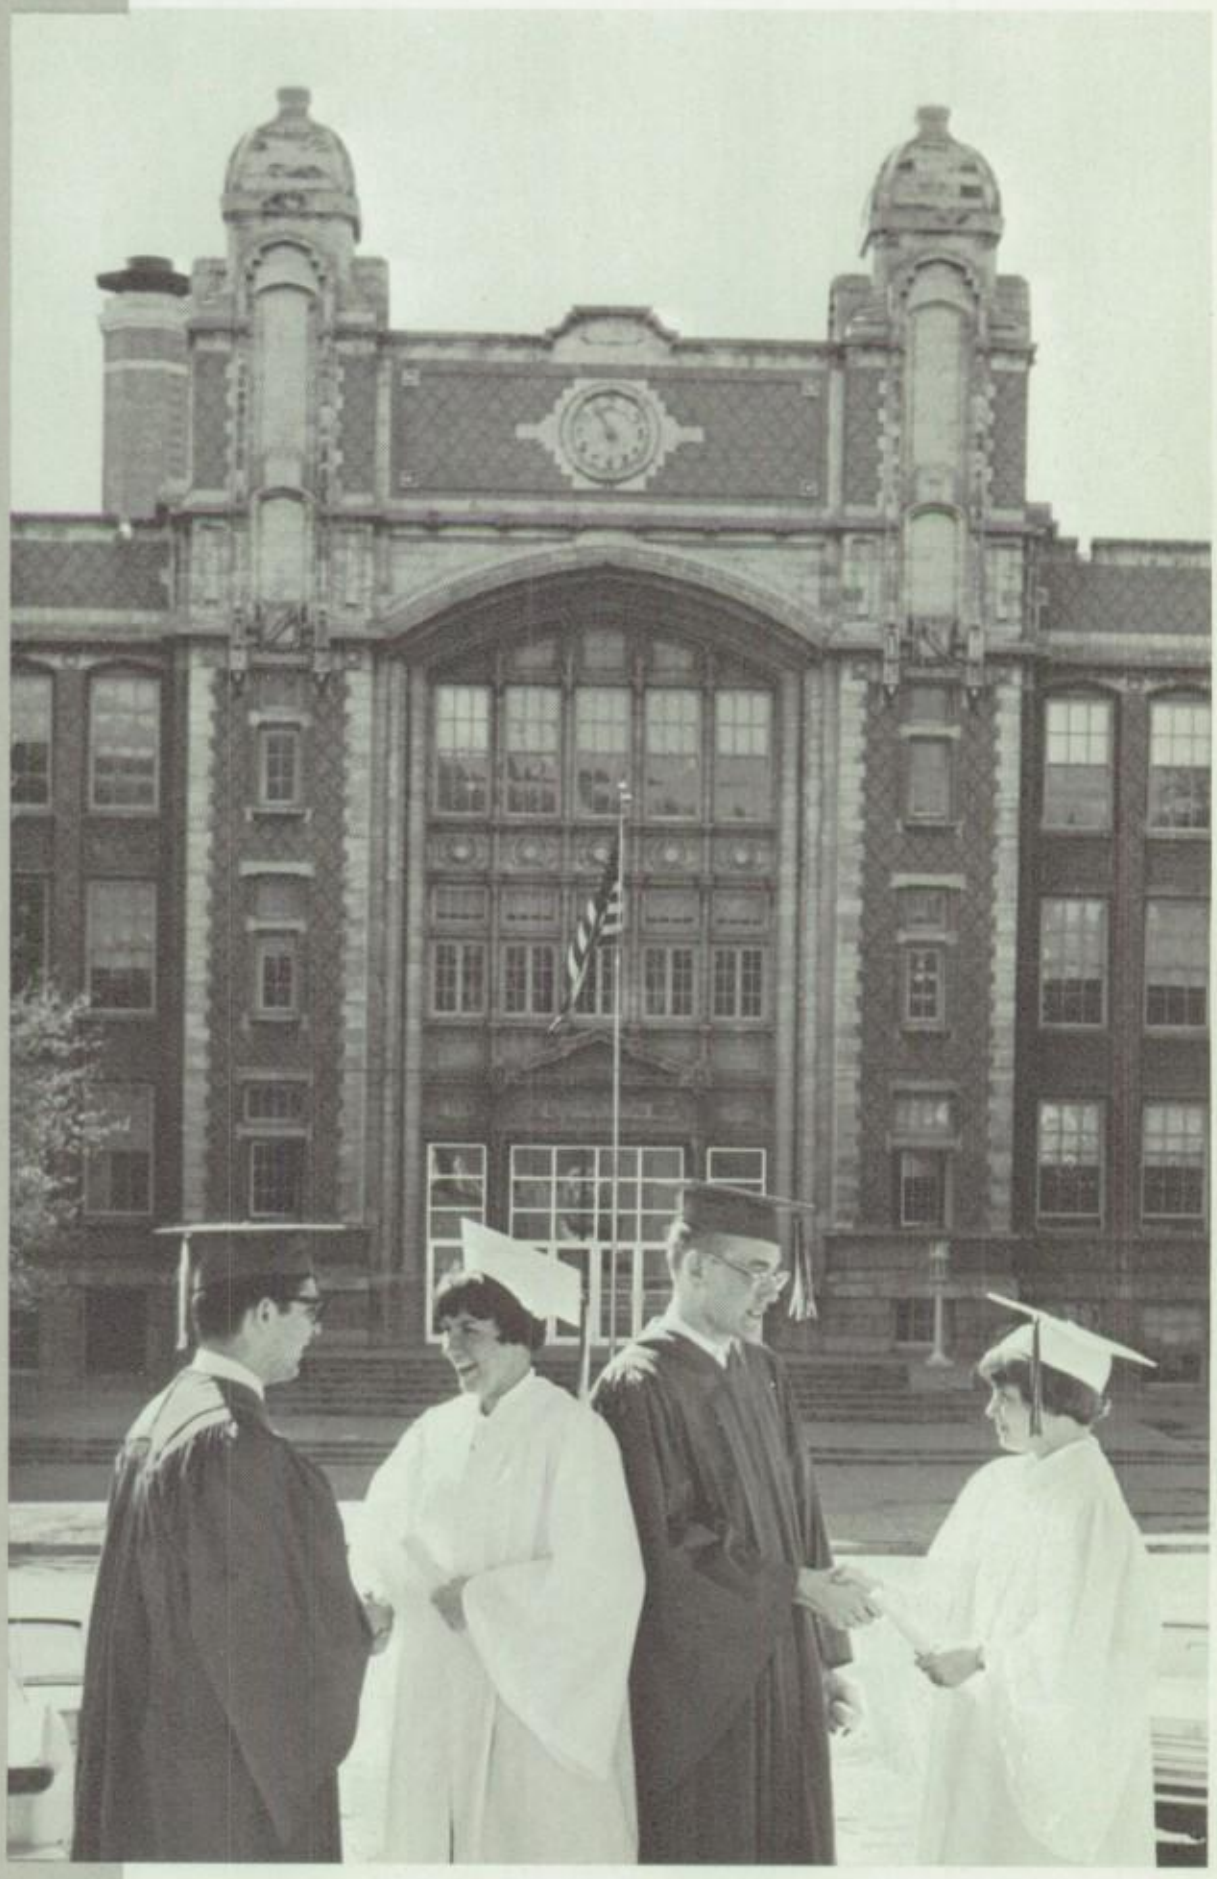
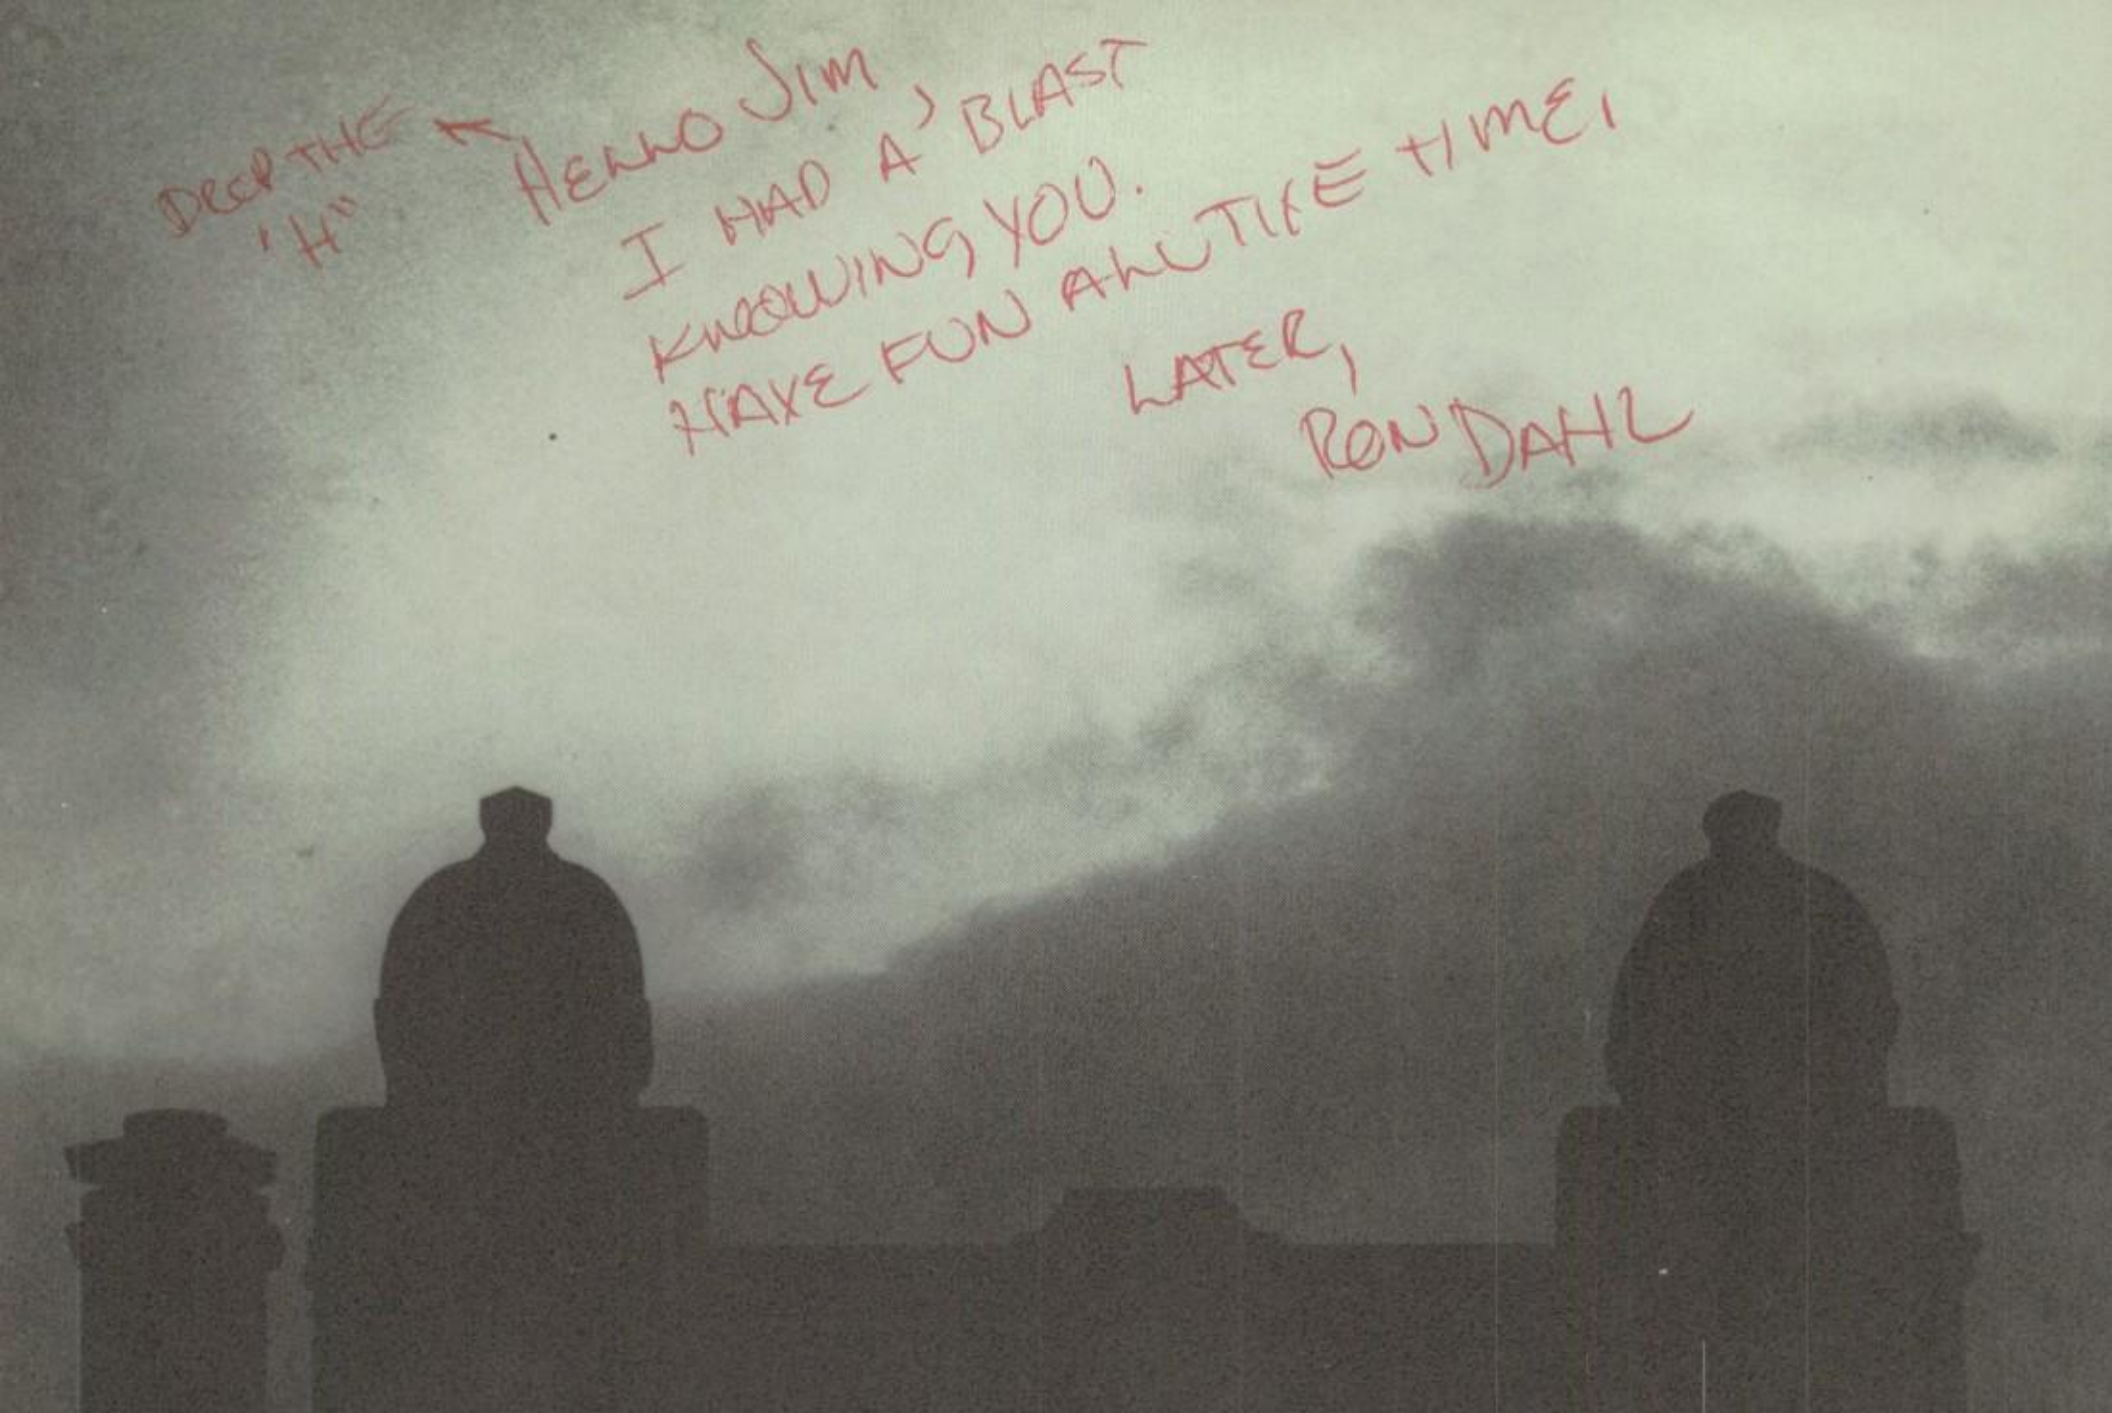
. . . of challenge
. . . of achievement . . .





For those who know her well . . .
East is only a shadow . . .
of echoes that remain . . .
and promises to come.

In Appreciation

It's been quite a year, from our first staff meeting early one June morning on East's front lawn, to the moment we unpacked the yearbooks one year later. The fruit of our labor has grown from a thumbnail sketch, layouts, and blueprints into a 200-page autograph book — one of the three tangible objects that will remain from high school: a diploma, a class pin, and a 1965 EASTONIA. Now that the deadlines are met and the crises are over, in appreciation we mention three groups who have made the book possible — the administration, the staff, and the students.

The central administration, East's principals and faculty, and especially our staff advisers have all cooperated above and beyond their calls of duty for the publication. From the faculty sponsors who were concerned for their clubs' pages, to our own sponsor with his fatherly advice — all have been a pleasure to work with.

Of highest importance to the completion of the book are the twenty-one ambitious and funloving staff members who have produced this phenomenon. Throughout the book, each has added his ideas and personality, and in appreciation for their overabundance of energy goes our heartfelt thanks.

For the sophomores we hope this first annual marks the path of the tradition that accompanies East; we trust the juniors will accept the challenge to make a better EASTONIA and an even bigger year; and for the seniors we have tried to capture the achievements and memories of their climactic year. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to serve you. It would be our pleasure if the 1965 EASTONIA suits each of you and that the quality of past yearbooks has been surpassed.

SUPERIOR YEARBOOKS

are made by

SUPERIOR CRAFTSMEN AT WHEELWRIGHTS

Meet a winning team! These staff members at Wheelwrights have all won the Certificate of Craftsmanship awarded by the Master Printers Section of the Printing Industries of America. They have earned the "Masters Degree" of the lithographing business. These are the folk whose skills produced the book you now hold. Look again at the sharp, clean halftone pictures, the elegant color reproductions, and the legible typography which attest to their ability. We hope you like their work and keep this book for many years because of what it says and the beautiful manner in which it speaks.

Dear Grandpa,
How're ya? Wren are ya? I read this, you will start to cry; not that it makes you feel bad because of memmerories but because when you diar't learn to old read when you were 4 years
so. I can call you anything I want and you won't even no it's bad. Really your great. Pat Stokes
